

RACHEL CRAMER

Rachel Cramer graduated from Brandeis University with a B.A. in History. She received her J.D. from Washington University School of Law where she was a member of the Order of the Coif. She practiced law in two private firms in Washington, D.C., before joining the Tax Division as a trial attorney handling civil tax cases in the mid-west. After ten years as a civil trial attorney, Ms. Cramer became the Tax Division's Director of the Office of Training and Professional Development. In this capacity she oversees the Division's summer law intern program and is primarily responsible for selecting volunteer rising 2L summer interns. For the last three years she has also served as a counsel to the Division's Assistant Attorney General on matters relating to management and administration.

JENNIFER VOZNE

Jennifer Vozne received a Bachelor of Arts, cum laude, in Finance in 1997 and a Masters in Business Administration in 1999 from the University of South Florida. She graduated cum laude from Stetson University College of Law in May 2002. Ms. Vozne was an intern with the Tax Division through the Department of Justice's Summer Law Intern Program in 2001 and she joined the Tax Division, through the Attorney General's Honors Program, as a trial attorney in October 2002. She received Outstanding Attorney Awards in October 2004 and October 2005, a Special Commendation Award in October 2006, and a Special Act of Service Award in October 2007. Since January 2007, she has served as Counsel to the Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Civil Tax Matters and the Division's Attorney Recruitment Coordinator.