

Martin Needle

Martin Needle is Special Counsel to the Division Counsel/Associate Chief Counsel (Criminal Tax) in the National Office. In this position, Mr. Needle provides legal guidance on matters involving tax crimes, money laundering and forfeiture. He has spoken on subjects involving abusive trusts, parallel civil and criminal proceedings and search warrants. Mr. Needle received a B.A. in Economics from Emory University, a J.D. from the George Washington University, and an L.L.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University. Prior to joining the office of Chief Counsel, Mr. Needle worked as a Tax Associate with Coopers & Lybrand in Miami, Florida.