A briefing by and discussion with:

Iain Guest, founder and director of the Advocacy Project

Recovery, Reintegration and Risk Reduction: Responding to Armed Sexual Violence in Africa

Lessons learned from work in the Congo

Wednesday, February 12, 2013

4:00 pm

Georgetown University Law Center
Eric E. Hotung International Law Building
Room 1000

600 New Jersey Ave., N.W.

Iain Guest, from The Advocacy Project, will review the lessons learned from four years of working with SOS Femmes en Danger, an innovative Congolese NGO since 2010. The program has assisted 700 survivors of sexual violence to recover and helped thousands more women from the area to reduce their exposure to war rape. Mr Guest has recently returned from DRC and Mali.
