FEATURING A KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY PROFESSOR FRANCOIS CRÉPEAU, MCGILL UNIVERSITY HANS AND TAMAR OPPENHEIMER CHAIR IN PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW AND UNITED NATIONS SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF MIGRANTS.

The day's events build on the research conducted by the Human Rights Institute Fact-Finding Project, which focuses on the treatment of migrant children on the Southern border of Mexico. The conference will address the protection of the human rights of migrants as states seek to externalize control and enforcement of migration. Panels will discuss enforcement efforts along the Southern Mexico border as well as US immigration law and policy.

Monday, April 13, 2015
9:30 am-5:30 pm | 12th Floor Gewirz Student Center
Georgetown University Law Center
600 New Jersey Avenue, NW | Washington, DC 20001

See www.humanrightsinstitute.net to RSVP to this event.

The Samuel Dash Conference on Human Rights was established by Samuel Dash’s family and friends, Georgetown Law alumni and the law firm of Cozen O’Connor to honor Dash’s contributions to international human rights and domestic civil rights. Professor Dash passed away in 2004.