Symposium: "Courts at Risk, Rights in Peril: Where Have All the Courageous Gone?"

Wednesday, October 10, 2007, 4:00 – 5:30 p.m.
Georgetown University Law Center
Gewirz Student Center - 12th Floor
120 F Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

MODERATOR: Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of the United States
PANELISTS: Carmen María Argibay, Justice, Supreme Court of Argentina
Carlos José Cerda Fernández, Judge, Santiago Court of Appeals
Mónica Feria Tinta, Lawyer and Activist NOTE:

This event is hosted by Georgetown Law and sponsored by the Peter and Patricia Gruber Foundation, in coordination with Georgetown Law's Human Rights Institute.

As three active voices for democracy in the Latin American judicial system, Argibay (Argentina), Cerda (Chile) and Feria (Peru) are being honored with the 2007 Justice Prize of the Peter and Patricia Gruber Foundation.