Want to learn about how a fellowship can jump-start your human rights career?

Interested in spending a full-year working with one of Washington’s premier international human rights organizations?

Join us and learn more about:

The Dale and James J. Pinto (L’76) Georgetown Law Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Fellowship

Thursday, February 2, 2017

Noon to 1:00 p.m.

Lunch will be provided! RSVP on Simplicity.

Office of Public Interest and Community Service
McDonough 208

The Dale and James J. Pinto (L’76) Georgetown Law Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Fellowship provides an exciting opportunity to spend one year with Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights conducting research and writing on human rights around the globe and participating in the development of the strategies, legal actions, and advocacy of the organization. The fellowship is open to graduating Georgetown Law J.D.s with a passion for pursuing a career in international human rights advocacy. Representatives from Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights and HRI will be on-hand to speak about the fellowship and answer questions.

For more information, contact HRI fellow Patrick Griffith (pwg7@law.georgetown.edu).