If your answer to any of these questions is “yes,” please explain fully on additional paper or in an electronic attachment.

☐ I have ever been the subject of any disciplinary action taken by any college or university?

☐ I have ever been placed on academic probation?

☐ I have ever been convicted of a criminal offense, or is any charge now pending against you for any crime other than a traffic violation?

☐ I have ever been separated from a branch of the armed forces of the United States under conditions other than favorable?

☐ Has your college, university, graduate, or professional school course of study been interrupted for one or more terms for any reason?

Please attach the following items (May use electronic attachments if applying electronically)

Personal Statement:
You may write your personal statement on any subject of importance that you feel will assist us in our decision. (please double-space)

Resume:
Describing schools attended, dates of attendance and degree(s) awarded; work experience, including employer, position, nature of work and dates of employment (please include part-time employment during the academic year); extracurricular/community activities, including nature and length of involvement; and scholastic honors including academic awards, scholarships or fellowships. (maximum two pages)

Optional Statement:
The Law Center recruits students from diverse racial, economic, educational, and ethnic backgrounds. The Admissions Committee encourages you to attach a brief statement that will enable the Committee to understand the contribution your personal background would make to the student body of Georgetown University Law Center.

By signing this application or by transmitting it electronically, I certify that the statements made in this application for admission to Georgetown University Law Center are complete and accurate. I will promptly inform the Law Center, in writing, if there are any changes in any of the facts indicated herein. I understand that providing false, misleading, or incomplete information will result in immediate revocation of any offer of admission. If admitted, I am aware that academic institutions (post-secondary), which I have previously attended, will be contacted to verify that I have not been subjected to any disciplinary action or academic censure. Georgetown reserves the right to provide law schools with names of applicants accepted under our binding Early Decision program.

I have read the description of Georgetown University Law Center’s Early Decision admissions process on the Admissions website, and wish to be considered as an Early Decision candidate. I will enroll at the Law Center if admitted under this process. In addition, if admitted under Early Decision, I agree to withdraw all of my applications pending at other law schools and will not initiate any new applications. Finally, I understand that I may not apply to any other law schools under a similarly binding Early Decision process.

OPTIONAL SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS FOR GEORGETOWN LAW J.D. APPLICATION
2012-2013

OPTIONAL APPLICATION SECTION

In the Office of Admissions, we take great pride in dispelling the myth that the admissions process is strictly a numbers game. While numbers are important, the Admissions Committee would like to give you the opportunity to express yourself, and us to get to know you, in another way. If you would like to provide us with additional information about yourself, which the Admissions Committee will consider in evaluating your application, please feel free to choose ONE of the following 5 optional responses.

When we say optional, we really do mean optional. The Committee will in NO way hold it against you if you choose not to answer any of these questions. 250 words maximum

1. Tell us about a time when you failed and what you learned.
2. What is the best advice you ever received and have you followed it?
3. Describe your perfect day. Ever have one?
4. How would your friends describe you? Did they miss anything?
5. Prepare a one-minute video that says something about you. Upload it to an easily accessible website and provide us the URL. (If you are using YouTube, we strongly suggest that you make your video unlisted so it will not appear in any of YouTube's public spaces.) What you do or say is entirely up to you. Please note that we are unable to watch videos that come in any form other than a URL link.
