First Year (Fall 2016)

Joint Degree Program Applicants

Applicants to the joint masters and Ph.D. degree programs must apply to each program separately. Each program has its own application form, deadlines, admissions procedures and requirements. Acceptance to one program is not contingent on acceptance to another. You must be admitted to both programs separately before you can enter the joint degree. Please select the joint degree program to which you intend to apply, if any.

Optional Statement:
The Law Center recruits students from diverse racial, economic, educational and ethnic backgrounds. The Admissions Committee encourages you to attach a brief statement that will enable the Committee to understand the contribution your personal background would make to the student body of Georgetown University Law Center.

By signing this application or by transmitting it electronically, I certify that the statements made in this application for admission to Georgetown University Law Center are complete and accurate. I understand that I am under a continuing obligation to provide accurate, current and complete information and will promptly inform Georgetown Law, in writing, if there are any changes in any of the facts indicated herein. I understand that providing false, misleading, or incomplete factual information will result in immediate revocation of any offer of admission. If admitted, I am aware that academic institutions (post-secondary), which I have previously attended, will be contacted to verify that I have not been subjected to any disciplinary action or academic censure.

I further understand that if Georgetown Law believes that I have provided false or misleading information, Georgetown Law may submit information to the LSAC Subcommittee on Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process for investigation under the Law School Admission Council Rules Governing Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process. If misconduct or an irregularity is determined as a result of the investigation, all schools to which I have applied, or may apply, will be notified.

OPTIONAL SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS FOR FIRST-YEAR JD APPLICATION
FALL 2016

In the Office of Admissions, we take great pride in dispelling the myth that the admissions process is strictly a numbers game. While numbers are important, the Admissions Committee would like to give you the opportunity to express yourself, and us the opportunity to get to know you, in another way. Please feel free to choose ONE of the following 5 optional responses.

When we say optional, we really do mean optional. The Committee will in NO way hold it against you if you choose not to answer any of these questions. (Max 250 words.)

1. What is the best advice you ever received and have you followed it?

2. Write the first paragraph of your autobiography.

3. Which teacher in your life has most inspired you and why?

4. Fill this box in any way you like:

5. Prepare a one-minute video that says something about you. Upload it to an easily accessible website and provide us the URL. (If you are using YouTube, we strongly suggest that you make your video unlisted so it will not appear in any of YouTube’s public spaces.) What you do or say is entirely up to you. Please note that we are unable to watch videos that come in any form other than a URL link.
