Optional Statement:
The Law Center recruits students from diverse racial, ethnic, economic and educational backgrounds. The Admissions Committee encourages you to attach a brief statement that will enable the Committee to understand the contribution your personal background would make to the student body of Georgetown University Law Center.

By signing this application or by transmitting it electronically, I certify that the statements made in this application for admission to Georgetown University Law Center are complete and accurate. I understand that I am under a continuing obligation to provide accurate, current and complete information and will promptly inform Georgetown Law, in writing, if there are any changes in any of the facts indicated herein. I understand that providing false, misleading, or incomplete factual information will result in immediate revocation of any offer of admission. If admitted, I am aware that academic institutions (post-secondary), which I have previously attended, will be contacted to verify that I have not been subjected to any disciplinary action or academic censure.

I further understand that if Georgetown Law believes that I have provided false or misleading information, Georgetown Law may submit information to the LSAC Subcommittee on Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process for investigation under the Law School Admission Council Rules Governing Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process. If misconduct or an irregularity is determined as a result of the investigation, all schools to which I have applied, or may apply, will be notified.

Georgetown Law reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission or take any other action, for reasons including, but not limited to, if an applicant engages in behavior that is dishonest or evidences lack of integrity or trustworthiness.

I have read the description of Georgetown University Law Center’s EARLY DECISION binding admissions process on the Admissions website, and wish to be considered as an EARLY DECISION candidate. I will enroll at the Law Center if admitted under this process. In addition, if admitted under EARLY DECISION, I agree to withdraw all of my applications pending at other law schools, will withdraw from any waitlists, and will not initiate any new applications. Finally, I understand that I may not apply to any other law schools under a similarly BINDING EARLY DECISION process.

In the Office of Admissions, we take great pride in dispelling the myth that the admissions process is strictly a numbers game. While numbers are important, the Admissions Committee would like to give you the opportunity to express yourself, and us the opportunity to get to know you, in another way. Please feel free to choose ONE of the following 5 optional responses.

When we say optional, we really do mean optional. The Committee will in NO way hold it against you if you choose not to answer any of these questions. 250 words maximum.

1. Imagine it is ten years after you’ve graduated from Georgetown Law. Where are you?
2. Give us your top ten list.
3. Anyone who has never made a mistake has never tried anything new. Describe your most interesting mistake.
4. Fill this box in any way you like:

5. Prepare a one-minute video that says something about you. Upload it to an easily accessible website and provide us the URL. (If you are using YouTube, we strongly suggest that you make your video unlisted and not private so it will not appear in any of YouTube’s public spaces.) What you do or say is entirely up to you. Please note that we are unable to watch videos that come in any form other than a URL link.
