

If applicable, print out, complete and mail this form. It will not be transmitted electronically.

Georgetown University Law Center / 2010

Global Law Scholars Program

c/o Office of Transnational Programs
Georgetown University Law Center
600 New Jersey Avenue, NW, Hotung 5029
Washington, DC 20001-2075
(202) 662-9860 Telephone (202) 662-4038 Telefax
transnational@law.georgetown.edu

APPLICATION TO BE SELECTED AS A GLOBAL LAW SCHOLAR (GLS)

Entering Full-Time First Year JD applicants only

Last Name		First Name		Middle Name		Maiden/Former Name
L
LSAC Account Number
Address				City		State	Zip
Telephone				Email
Signature				Date

NOTE: The Program is open to entering Full-Time JD applicants only. We will not review this GLS application until after you have been accepted into the Full-Time JD Program.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIS FORM

1. Read carefully the description of the Program in this publication, and on the GLS website at <http://www.law.georgetown.edu/gls>. The GLS website includes the answers to many Frequently Asked Questions regarding the application process.
2. Complete and sign this form. Attach a resume and completed Foreign Language Evaluation. Your GLS application will not be considered complete without all required documentation. Do NOT include your GLS application with your JD application. Send the completed GLS application in a separate envelope to the address above.
3. GLS applications are due by February 1. Early application is welcome. Consideration of applications received after February 1 is possible but is not guaranteed.

Please respond to the following questions. You may also attach your answers on a separate sheet of paper.

What are your long-term professional goals? How would being a Global Law Scholar help you achieve these goals?

Describe what in your educational background/work experience triggered your interest in pursuing a career in international, comparative, or transnational law (or some combination of the above).

Please list any academic coursework that demonstrates a developing interest in transnational issues or legal practice. Include participation in any study abroad programs.

Title	Institution/ Location	Date

Please list any internationally related activities in which you have participated (e.g., student organizations, work experience, volunteer activities, etc.).
