Bring your classmates up to date: Submit your Class Notes

They want to know what you have been doing since graduating from the Law Center! Send a greeting to your classmates. Go to www.law.georgetown.edu/alumni and then to your reunion page to fill out a class note. Even if you cannot attend you will receive a hard copy of your Class Notes, along with those submitted by your classmates. So hurry before October 10, and submit a note! Law Reunion Weekend attendees will be able to pick up their notes at the registration table during reunion.

Are you an author???

We would like to help you. Join us at our Authors' Table at the Alumni Center, where we would be happy to display your work. We also invite you to spend some time there and autograph books.

Library Open House

On Friday, October 20, 2006, come tour the Edward Bennett Williams Law Library and learn about the innovative methods of legal research from its resource librarians and visit the new space for our Journals. The tour will end with a book signing by a prominent Law Center author and a reception in the John Wolff library. Make sure you plan to be a part of this rewarding event.

Special Events Update

*The Dean's Talk Show.

Join Dean T. Alexander Aleinikoff and guests The Honorable Rufus King, L'71, Maurita Coley, L'81, David N. Cicilline, L'86, and Alan Morelli, L'86 for a chat about the ways in which attending GULC had a positive impact on their careers.

*Hamdan v. Rumsfeld: A Discussion with Professor Neal Katyal

Professor Neal Katyal, who recently served as the lead attorney and argued Hamdan v. Rumsfeld successfully before the Supreme Court, will discuss the Hamdan case and take questions from the audience.

*Symposium on Legal Ethics

In an age of corporate and governmental scandal, corruption, and malfeasance, the issue of ethical conduct has become more salient than ever. The Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics (GJLE) celebrates "20 Years of Legal Ethics" with a keynote address by Professor Stephen Gillers, the Emily Kempin Professor of Law at New York University. Since 1978, Professor Gillers has focused his research and writing on the regulation of the legal profession. His review of ethics appears in legal journals and the popular press, and he considers the Journal of Legal Ethics to be the most important Journal published in the U.S. The Symposium will be preceded by a brunch.

*Alternatives to Legal Practice: Using Your JD in the Business World

Marilyn Tucker, Director of Alumni Career Services in the Office of Career Services, will lead a discussion with distinguished alumni about successful business careers using your law degree. Friday, October 20th @ 2:30PM. Panelists will include:

Donna Cryer, L'96, Cryer Health, LLC     Robert Sarazen, L'91, Goldman Sachs     Steve Zaleznick, L'79, Longevity Alliance, Inc.
David Bookspan, L'82, Bookspan Consulting, LLC     Steven Shapiro, B'84, L'87, L'91, The Whiting-Turner Contracting Company

*The Globalization of Regulatory Systems

An interactive discussion led by Professors Robert Pitofsky and Donald Langevoort and Naboth Van Den Broek, '81, whose practice at WilmerHale in Washington, DC and Belgium focuses on legal and strategic advice on WTO/International Trade and market issues, as well as on European Union Regulatory and competition law and policy.

*Book signing, Wally Mlyniec, L'70

In his new book, "Construction Notes Transforming a Campus in Washington, DC", GULC Professor Wallace Mlyniec, L'70, answers a variety of interesting questions about Georgetown Law. Books will be available for purchase, and "Wally" will be happy to sign them.

*Legacy Society: Planning for Forever

A seminar designed by the Georgetown University Legacy Society to address a variety of financial planning issues and concerns.

*After Glow Class Section Gatherings

Reminisce with your old classmates about the glory days of Con Law, Civil Procedure, and Torts. Returning alumni are invited to stay at the Law Center on Friday evening to gather by class section and share memories of their time at GULC.

*Register for these events at <https://www.law.georgetown.edu/alumni/reunion/>

Georgetown Law Sport and Fitness Center: Memberships available!

Enjoy a run on the treadmill, a few laps in the pool, or a dip in the jacuzzi at GULC's recently built, state-of-the-art Sport and Fitness center. The weekend is free for alumni and guests beginning at 6 a.m. on Friday, October 20. No guest fee is required to work out, but you must complete a guest waiver. Also during the weekend the Sport & Fitness Center will be offering an Alumni Membership Special. When you join the Center you will receive one additional month FREE. Note: only children 14 and older are permitted, and only when accompanied by an adult. Check it out!

Campus Tours

On Friday, October 20, tours of the Law Center's Campus will be given and include the newest additions to the Law Center campus, the Sport and Fitness Center and the Eric E. Hotung International Law Center Building. The tours will also include the addition to Bernard P. McDonough Hall, the Sarah M. and Bernard S. Gewirz Student Center, and the Edward Bennett Williams Law Library. Tours will depart from the Registration area at 3:00, 3:30, 4:00, and 4:30 p.m.

Alumni Basketball Challenge Cancelled

Unfortunately, due to scheduling conflicts, this event, originally scheduled for 2:30pm-4:00pm on Saturday, October 21st, has been cancelled. We apologize for any inconvenience. However, please feel free to make use of the basketball courts at other times during the weekend. You can organize pick-up games or just shoot some hoops. Have fun!
