

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CALENDAR

SPRING – FALL 2007

M A Y
17-18	Advanced State and Local Tax Institute HYATT REGENCY, WASHINGTON
J U N E
4-10	Intensive Session in Trial Advocacy Skills (in cooperation with the National Institute for Trial Advocacy) LAW CENTER
A U G U S T
23-25	NITA Deposition Skills LAW CENTER
S E P T E M B E R
27-28	Defending the White Collar Case (cosponsored by the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers) LAW CENTER
O C T O B E R
5	Bankruptcy: Views from the Bench (cosponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute) LAW CENTER
N O V E M B E R
	Advanced E-Discovery Institute LAW CENTER

Dates are subject to change. For more information, contact the Continuing Legal Education office at 202-662-9890. Email: CLE@law.georgetown.edu. Web site: www.law.georgetown.edu/cle/.

acquisitions, counseling and government investigations.

Rebecca M. McNeill was promoted to of counsel at Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner in Washington, D.C.

Her practice focuses on biotechnology patent prosecution and client counseling, and she assists both domestic and international clients. Rebecca also serves on the board of directors of the Women's Bar Association of the District of Columbia. On a personal note, she enjoys singing with the praise and worship band at Mount Olivet United Methodist Church and writing her own harmony parts. She can be reached at rebecca.mcneill@finnegan.com.

Scott Pinarchick (LL.M.) was promoted to partner at Edwards Angell Palmer & Dodge, where he is a member of the firm's corporate practice group. He is based out of its Boston and Providence offices.

Natalie L. Reed has joined Stites & Harbison as counsel in the firm's Louisville, Ky., office. She is a member of the firm's real estate and banking service group and focuses on capital markets lending.

1998

Emanuel Cotronakis was appointed international industry team coordinator for Baker Hostetler's Cleveland office.

David B. Denechaud was elected partner at Dechert. He works in the firm's corporate and securities, private equity and merger and acquisition groups and is based in its New York City office. He represents private and public companies in all corporate finance transactions.

Michele Johnson was elected partner at Latham and Watkins. She focuses on securities litigation and complex mass torts in the firm's Orange County, Calif., office.

Law & Politics magazine named Jeffrey D. Peelen, a partner with Quarles & Brady, a Wisconsin "Rising Star" for 2006. Peelen serves as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel and issuer's counsel to Wisconsin municipalities, counties, school districts and other political subdivisions, as well as the state of Wisconsin.

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher named Jason C. Schwartz a partner. He is located in the firm's Washington, D.C., office and practices labor and employment law.

Dalton W. Sprinkle recently joined Integrated Dental Solutions Inc., an international dental services company with operations in the United States and Asia, as its president, chief executive officer and member of its board of directors. The company offers laboratory services and software designed to increase the efficiency of dental practices. He also was recently appointed to the board of directors of Open Energy Corp., a publicly traded renewable energy company, where he serves as chair of the corporate governance committee.

Daniel White was elected partner at Bryan Cave. He practices in the firm's St. Louis office and specializes in corporate, partnership and international tax planning. His practice principally focuses on mergers and acquisitions, tax-free reorganizations, restructurings and spin-offs, and partnership transactions.

1999

Christopher D. Christian (LL.M.) was elected as a partner at Dechert. He works in the firm's financial services group and is based in its Washington, D.C., office. He focuses on investment companies, offshore registered and unregistered products and investment adviser regulation.