Summer Tuition Refund Schedule

The refund schedule for the summer 2017 semester is as follows:

Prior to the start of the classes -- prior to May 25
1st Week -- May 25 – June 1
2nd Week -- June 2 – June 8
3rd Week -- June 9 – June 15
Balance of the semester

100% 80% 50% 25% no refund

A student will be permitted to drop a summer course after the first class meeting, without a transcript notation, if the student submits a written request to the Office of the registrar, lawreg@law.georgetown.edu prior to the second class meeting. In these instances, students who are charged tuition by the credit hour will receive a 100% refund for the course.

Important Note: Refunds for students who have federal student loans and who withdraw are governed by the refund procedures established by the Department of Education for return of student loan proceeds to the appropriate federal student loan lender. Students borrowing federal loans should consult with the Financial Aid Office prior to initiating the withdrawal process. The regulations require a student to “earn” federal financial aid on a daily basis as the term progresses. For example, if there were 100 days in the semester, a student withdrawing on the 30th day will have earned 30% of their federal aid. As of the 60% point in a given semester, the student is considered to have earned 100% of the federal loans borrowed for that term. Withdrawal before then requires Georgetown Law to return loan funds to the lender even though, based on the tuition refund schedule shown above, this may result in the student owing a balance to Georgetown Law. Before officially withdrawing, consult the Financial Aid Office for more information on the financial implications of your decision. The Georgetown Law tuition refund policy is subject to change at any time due to federal regulatory and/or school policy revisions or updates.
