Dirk Giseburt is a partner at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP in Seattle, Washington, where his practice focuses on state and local taxation, with some emphasis on taxation of nonprofit organizations. He is active in the American Bar Association’s State and Local Taxes Committee, where he co-chairs the task force on the ABA Model Transaction Tax Overpayment Act. He and his colleague Michele Radosevich have successfully expanded the scope of the nonprofit hospital exemption from property tax in Washington State in the cases of Legacy Salmon Creek Hospital v. State, 2007 Wash. Tax LEXIS 306 (Wash. Bd. Tax App. 2007) (integrated outpatient facilities are “hospital” uses), and Virginia Mason Medical Center v. State, 2013 WL 5572795 (Wash. Bd. Tax App. 2013) (facilities planning and construction support for a new wing are “hospital” uses). Each case was affirmed on appeal in unreported decisions. Mr. Giseburt is a graduate of Princeton University and Harvard Law School.
