Speaker Biography

D. Greg Goller is the Managing Director, Tax at KPMG LLP. He has been representing tax-exempt organizations for over 25 years. Greg’s years of experience provide clients with valuable insight into the complex tax rules applicable to tax-exempt organizations. Among other areas, he has extensive experience in planning, structuring, analyzing, and reporting transactions and activities for tax-exempt organizations. Greg has successfully represented many clients before the IRS during examinations and has served many tax-exempt organizations by obtaining tax-exempt status, obtaining private letter rulings, technical advice memorandums, and closing agreements with the Internal Revenue Service and State Departments of Revenue. Greg is frequently selected as a speaker at tax conferences and has written many technical articles published in Taxation of Exempts and The Tax Advisor. Mr. Goller is an associate member of the AICPA’s Exempt Organizations Taxation Technical Resource Panel and has been very active in the revised Form 990. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a major in accounting from the University of Missouri – Columbia. Greg is a Certified Public Accountant in the jurisdictions of Virginia, Missouri, and New York.