Mary Anne Rodgers serves as general counsel and secretary of the David and Lucile Packard Foundation. She is responsible for responding to the Foundation’s legal needs by providing guidance and solutions to support the Foundation’s programmatic goals. Mary Anne has been active in international grantmaking activities and forums. She was co-chair of the PRI Makers Network, now the Mission Investors Exchange, from 2006 to 2012. Mary Anne is committed to building knowledge and training in the field and is one of the founding members of a group of private foundations which created www.learnfoundationlaw.org. Prior to joining the Foundation in 2000, Mary Anne was a partner in the law firm of Bergeson and Eliopolous, specializing in business and commercial litigation. Mary Anne received her undergraduate degree from the University of California at San Diego, and her Juris Doctorate from the University of California at Los Angeles. She is admitted to practice in California and New York. Mary Anne has served on the boards and advisory committees of several nonprofit organizations.