Restaurants

Walking Distance from Law Center

Food Trucks: During the warmer months, food trucks can often be found on Massachusetts Ave. towards Union Station. Very inexpensive. See foodtruckfiesta.com/dc-food-trucks/ for real-time locations of area food trucks.

Article I: Located in the Hyatt Regency Hotel, this restaurant offers upscale classic American cuisine and libations. Moderate. 400 New Jersey Avenue. 202-737-1234. Ask for the D.C. Neighborhood Business Discount

Bistro 525: A variety of American cuisine including soups, salads, sandwiches and pizzas. Located in the Washington Court Hotel at 525 New Jersey Avenue NW. Moderately Expensive. 202-628-2100.

Bistro Bis: Fabulous French food, lots of seafood and great desserts. Blonde wood, big booths and a neat view of chefs at work through the glass wall that covers the kitchen. Expensive. Located in The Hotel George at 15 E Street. 202-661-2700.

Café Phillips: Sandwich deli. If you’re looking for a top-notch belly-filler at a great value, in a modern setting to relax and get away, look nowhere else. Inexpensive. 50 F Street NW. 202-347-6676.

Kelly’s Irish Times: Irish pub. Looks rather run down, but always packed for lunch. They have great specials. Inexpensive. 14 F St., NW. 202-543-5433.

Quiznos: Lunch Restaurants offer toasty sandwiches, fresh salads, and delicious soups. 80 F Street NW. 202-783-2136.

Subway: Patrons can choose from a variety of signature subs. Subway also serves salads, soups, and dessert items. Very inexpensive. Located on the 2nd floor of the Georgetown Law Sport and Fitness Center.

Union Station: The lower level of Union Station offers many casual dining options. It resembles a very large mall food court. Upstairs, there are also sit-down restaurants including:

- B. Smith’s: Southern style cooking with a great dessert menu, located in the former Presidential train station waiting room. Expensive. 202-289-6188.
- Potbelly Sandwich Works: Toasty warm sandwiches, hand-dipped malts and milkshakes - and warm homemade cookies - have made this sandwich shop a local favorite. Very Inexpensive. 202-408-9583.
- Chop’t Salad: Fresh ingredients and homemade dressings help you create your own crisp meal. Very inexpensive. 202-668-0330
- Roti Mediterranean Grill: Pitas, cous cous, fire-roasted meats and hummus. 202-499-4148
- YO! Sushi: Choose from over 70 dishes straight from the belt and simply press an airline style call button to order hot food and freshly prepared temaki (hand rolls).

West Wing Cafe: Serves a variety of bagels, sandwiches, wraps, hot panini, focaccia, and salads. 1111 Pennsylvania Ave. 202-628-2233.