

Visiting Away Student Financial Aid Checklist 2007-2008

This packet is provided to assist students planning to visit another institution during the 2007 – 2008 academic year. GULC students who have been granted permission to visit away and have been accepted into an accredited program at another institution may request student loans through the Financial Aid Office at GULC. Grant and scholarship aid is awarded only for payment of tuition at GULC.

Who are Visiting Away Students?

Visiting Away Students are those students who, for a specified term of enrollment, are attending an institution other than the school they were admitted to for their degree.
