

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER

TO: Georgetown J.D. and LL.M. students
FROM: Albert Lauber, Director of Taxation, Securities & Financial Regulation, and International Business and Economic Law LL.M. programs
SUBJECT: Scholarship Opportunity for current and former SEC employees
DATE: September 29, 2009

I am pleased to announce that the Association of Securities and Exchange Commission Alumni (ASECA) has generously endowed the Law Center with a fund that provides an annual scholarship to support a J.D. or LL.M. student at Georgetown who is a current or former full-time paid employee of the Securities and Exchange Commission. This year we are again seeking to award a $5000 scholarship to a deserving student enrolled in either the J.D. or LL.M. programs. If you are a former or current SEC employee, we invite you to apply.

To be considered for this award, please complete the enclosed form and return it to the Office of Graduate Programs, along with a copy of your resume and a cover letter, no later than Friday, October 30, 2009. The award will be announced by Friday, November 13, 2009. The recipient will be formally recognized at the Annual ASECA Dinner held on February 5, 2010 in Washington, D.C.

Please feel free to contact me at (202) 662-9036, if you have any questions about the ASECA Scholarship.
