

GEORGETOWN LAW

Graduate Career and Professional Development

Biographies of Speakers

INTRODUCTION TO NETWORKING AND JOB SEARCH RESOURCES

SEPTEMBER 15, 2010

Robin K. Bohnenstengel, Esquire

Account Executive

LexisNexis

Robin K. Bohnenstengel is a graduate of the University of Baltimore School of Law. Robin received her Bachelor of Science from Virginia Tech. Robin practiced in the Litigation Department of DLA Piper for seven years. Robin also taught Litigation Process as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Baltimore. Robin has been an Account Representative for LexisNexis since March 2009.

Catherine M. Dunn, Esquire

Reference Librarian

Georgetown University Law Library

Catherine M. Dunn is a Reference Librarian at the Georgetown University Law Library, and she teaches upper-division legal research courses as an Adjunct Professor of Law. Prior to entering law librarianship, Catherine practiced law for several years at two law firms in Chicago and served as a judicial clerk for a member of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Catherine also worked as an advocate for equal justice by taking on a significant pro bono caseload, working with the American Bar Association Center for Pro Bono, and serving on the Board of Directors of Chicago Volunteer Legal Services.

Denise Stewart, Esquire

Account Manager

Westlaw

Denise Stewart is a graduate of the University of Mississippi School of Law. Denise received her undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University and taught global studies, psychology, and sociology for four years before entering law school. As a third year student at the University of Mississippi School of Law, Denise was the Westlaw Student Representative. Upon graduation from law school, Denise moved to Houston, Texas to work with law firms as a Westlaw Account Representative. After three-and-a-half years, Denise moved to Washington, D.C. to become the West Account Manager for Georgetown Law. Currently, Denise is also the Account Manager at Catholic University.