Accepted forms of payment: online registration (via credit card) is fast, simple and the preferred method of registration for the 2011 Academy! Additional acceptable forms of payment also may include credit card and cheque, at the discretion of the Academy Administration. Cheques may be made payable to Georgetown Law's Academy of WTO Law & Policy and mailed to Georgetown Law's address, as listed on the Academy's website. A limited number of purchase orders and/or wire transfers also may be accepted, but this should be discussed with the Academy Administration. If it is agreed that a registrant will pay via wire transfer, the Academy Administration will provide you with all requisite routing information.

Questions: please contact us for additional information, registration assistance or with any questions about applicable program fees. All applicants will receive a response as quickly as possible.
