

List of Georgetown courses the New York State Court of Appeals approved as meeting the bar eligibility requirement of “two courses in basic U.S. law subjects”:

American Law Courses for International Students:

Introduction to U.S. Constitutional Law
Introduction to U.S. Legal Methods
U.S. Legal Discourse

Business Relationships:

Advanced Corporate Law
Agency and Partnership Law
Antitrust Law
Copyright Law
Corporations
Federal Regulation of Financial Institutions
Introduction to Intellectual Property
Patent and Trademark Secret Law
Patent Law
Patent Law: Basic Concepts and Broad Implications
Securities Regulation
Trademark and Unfair Competition Law
Trademark and Unfair Competition Seminar

Conflict of Law:

Conflicts of Law: Choice of Law

Constitutional Law:

Administrative Law
Administrative Law and Regulatory Policy
Civil Rights
Constitutional Law II: Individual Rights and Liberties
Constitutional Law : Theories of Free Speech
Environmental Law
Federal Courts and the Federal System
Federalism Seminar
Food and Drug Law
Free Press Seminar
Legislation
Separation of Powers Seminar
Supreme Court Seminar

Contracts:

Insurance Law

Criminal Law and Procedure:

Criminal Law
Evidence

Family Law:

Family Law
Family Law I: Marriage and Divorce
Family Law II: Parent, Child and the State

Federal Income and Estate Taxation:

Taxation I
Taxation II
Estate and Gift Taxation

Remedies:

Equitable Remedies

Torts:

Products Liability and Safety

Trusts, Wills and Estates:

Decedents' Estates

UCC:

Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights
Commercial Law: Payment Systems
Commercial Law: Sales Transactions
Commercial Law: Secured Transaction
Commercial Law: Secured Transactions & Payment Systems

COURSES THEY DID NOT APPROVE:

Antitrust, Economics and the Law
Banking and Financial Institutions Regulation
Corporate Finance
Corporate Governance
Patent Law: Current Issues Seminar
Civil Rights Policy Law
Natural Resources Law
Natural Resources Law Seminar: Selected Topics
Water Resources Law