Bangkok, June 3, 2003

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to recent discussions between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand regarding the Surrender of Persons to the International Criminal Court and to propose the following Agreement:

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand, hereinafter "the Parties,"

Reaffirming the importance of bringing to justice those who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Recalling that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, done at Rome on July 17, 1998 by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court is intended to supplement and not supplant national criminal jurisdiction,

Considering that the Government of the United States of America has expressed its intention to investigate and to prosecute where appropriate acts within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court alleged to have been Considering that the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand has signed the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court on October 2, 2000,

bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

herby agree as follows:

1. For purposes of this Agreement, "persons" of either Party include all nationals of that Party and all current and former military personnel of that Party.

2. Persons of one Party present in the territory of the other shall not, absent the express consent of the first Party,

(a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or

(b) be surrendered or transferred by any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

3. When the United States extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the Kingdom of Thailand to a third country, the United States will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand.
4. When the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the United States of America to a third country, the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by a third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States.

5. This Agreement will remain in force until one year after the date on which one Party notifies the other of its intent to terminate this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply with respect to any act occurring, or any allegation arising, before the effective date of termination.

If the proposal set forth herein is acceptable to the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand, this note and Your Excellency's affirmative note in reply shall constitute an Agreement between our two Governments which would enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's note.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

Considering that the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand has signed the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court on October 2, 2000,

Bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

Hereby agree as follows:

His Excellency
Darryl N. Johnson,
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary,
Embassy of the United States of America,
BANGKOK.
1. For purposes of this Agreement, “persons” of either Party include all nationals of that Party and all current and former military personnel of that Party.

2. Persons of one Party present in the territory of the other shall not, absent the express consent of the first Party,
   (a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or
   (b) be surrendered or transferred by any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

3. When the United States extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the Kingdom of Thailand to a third country, the United States will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand.

4. When the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the United States of America to a third country, the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by a third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States.
