

_____ University Pantheon 1 Paris-Sorbonne Law School and the Institute des Etudes Politiques (Sciences Po), Paris, France (Full year Master's Program)

*If you wish to apply to more than one program, please submit a separate set of application materials for each program and indicate on the Preference line below if the program is your 1st choice, 2nd choice, etc.

Preference (Applies only to students applying to more than one program): _____

Educational Objectives

Identify and briefly discuss below the educational/professional objective(s) that you expect to achieve during a semester abroad. Please limit your statement to 250 words. (Attach a separate sheet if necessary).

Anticipated Courses

Please list the courses in which you preliminarily would hope to enroll. (Attach a separate sheet if necessary.):

Language Proficiency

(Required for Universidad Torcuato di Tella, and the full year Master's program at Paris I and Sciences Po)

For any site selected at which the language of instruction is not English, please explain in detail your level of proficiency (both oral and written) in the language, specifically including educational training and practical experience. Students must be prepared to undergo formal language assessments if it is deemed necessary by the program administrators. (Attach a separate sheet if necessary.)

Please provide the following documents in support of your application:

A current résumé;

Your most recent Georgetown Law Center transcript (an unofficial copy from Student Access + will suffice)

Date: _____ Signature: _____
[please sign original]

Please print out and sign this application and submit it, and all supporting materials, in to Cara Morris in the Office of International and Transnational Programs, 6024 Hotung Building.

Mailing Address:
Georgetown University Law Center
Office of International and Transnational Programs
600 New Jersey Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20001-2022