

Masters in Global Business Law Teaching Staff
2009-2010

Professor of law at the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne. He earned his Ph.D. from the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne in 1999 and passed the "aggregation" of law in 2001. Professor Pietrancosta teaches French and European business, company, financial and securities law.	Alain Pietrancosta
MA, LLB, PhD (Cantab) Dr (Maastricht) Dr (honoris causa) (Nancy 2) Professor of Law. Joined Kent Law School in 1997 after having been Reader in Law at Lancaster University.	Geoffrey Samuel
Practitioner (French-German) is economist at the Science, Technology and Industry Directorate of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Paris and a Visiting Fellow at the Institute for International Economics, in Washington, D.C. Previously, he was a Swiss National Science Fellow at the Berkeley Centre for Law & Technology (University of California). He has published and worked on newer generation trade and technology issues and has served as a consultant with a number of institutions such as the UN ICT Task Force, the World Bank, and the German Parliament. He teaches international trade at the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences-Po) and at the World Bank Institute. Sacha holds a Masters of International Economics (University of Maastricht) and completed a PhD on WTO issues (University of St. Gallen).	Sacha Wunsch-Vincent
Practitioner Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Paris. Partner. Practice groups: Dispute Resolution.	Peter Turner
Professor of Public Law, University Paris XIII	Yves Nouvel
Adjunct Professor of International and Public Affairs, Columbia University	Eliza Patterson
Professor of Private Law, Corporate and Banking Law at Goethe-Universität, Frankfurt. Katja Langenbucher has studied law and philosophy at Munich University, Harvard Law School and Cambridge University. She was director of the Institute of Commercial Law at Philipps-University Marburg and currently holds a chair for Private Law, Corporate and Banking Law at Frankfurt University's House of Finance.	Katja Langenbucher
Practitioner Maîtrise de Droit Privé Université de Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne LL.M., University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada DEA de Droit Privé, Université de Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne	Kerry Allbeury
Professor François Ameli is a doctor of law at the University of Paris I (Panthéon	François Ameli

- Sorbonne). He holds a post-graduate degree in international law (1984) and private law (1985), both earned by the University of Paris II (Panthéon - Assas). Having taught at the University of Paris I, he joined two law firms at the French Council of State and the French Supreme Court Appeals, before setting up his own practice in 1994. He specializes in Business Law and International Commerce Law.
Practitioner Diploma from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques (Paris), business and finance section. Master in EC and international law (Assas University – Paris II), cum laude (AB). DEA (LLM equivalent) in English and North-American Business Law (Panthéon – Sorbonne University - Paris I), cum laude (AB). CFPP (Law school, Paris).	Christophe Clerc
Professor of Law, University Paris I	François Gaudu
Practitioner Ernst & Young	Eric Fourel
Professor of international law and diplomacy at the Freie Universität Berlin and former German Ambassador	William Bolewski
Practitioner, Darrois Villey Maillot Brochier . DEA (LLM equivalent) in English and North-American Business Law (Panthéon – Sorbonne University - Paris I)	Virginie Viallard
Associate Professor Resolution of International Business Disputes Ph.D. (European University Institute, 2003) LL.M. (University of Exeter, 1999) LL.B. (University of Latvia, 1996)	Galina Zukova
Professor of Private International and Comparative Law, Sciences Po. She prepared her doctorate in private international law (University of Paris 2, 1985) and was admitted to the agrégation in 1986.	Horatia Muir Watt
B.A., Yale, 1967; J.D., Yale, 1971; LL.M., Columbia, 1975; Jean Monnet Professor of EU Law; Walter Gellhorn Professor of Law; Director, European Legal Studies Center, Columbia Law School Honorary Degrees: Jean Monnet Chair of European Law (conferred July 2001); University of Fribourg, Switzerland (conferred Nov. 2000).	Georges Bermann
Professor Scherer is a member of the Paris bar. She graduated from University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne), France (1999, top of class) and received an LLM degree from University of Cologne, Germany (with honors). In 2001, she	Maxi Sherer obtained her PhD at the University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne) with highest honors.

Practitioner – Freshfields	Shaparak Saleh
Comparative, labor and employment law professor. Franco-American. Studied law at the University of Paris (PhD/Paris X Nanterre) and at the University of Pennsylvania Law School (LL.M).	Marie Mercat Bruns
Professor 1998. DEA (5 th year) in labour law (University of Paris X-Nanterre ; director of the DEA : A. Lyon-Caen) 1997. LLM in European Community Law (University of Essex ; director of the LLM : S. Anderman) 1996. Master degree at the University of Paris X-Nanterre	Pascal Lokiec
Practitioner University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne), Maîtrise, 1985 University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne), DEA Business Law, 1987 University of Pennsylvania, LL.M., 1991 Jean-Mathieu Cot is European Counsel and the leader of the Antitrust team in Shearman & Sterling's Paris office. He has specialized in the field of antitrust since 1991. He has advised numerous companies on French and European competition law aspects of international mergers and acquisitions transactions. He has also represented companies before the French Competition Council and the Paris Court of Appeals.	Jean-Mathieu Cot
Professor « Agrégation de droit privé » (French highest academic distinction in Law) Ph. D., University of Aix-Marseille (cum laude) D.E.A. in Social and Economic Law, University of Paris-Dauphine Graduation in Management studies at HEC (Hautes Etudes Commerciales), top French graduate business schools (French MBA)	Sophie Robin-Olivier
Professor of Law, Paris XII	Martine Kloepfer-Pelèse
Professor University of Montpellier (magna cum laude or summa cum laude) Doctoral degree : “Juge et Loi du Brevet” (1976) [“Judge and Law regarding Patents”] Professorial Examination (“Agrégation”) of Law Schools (1980)	Michel Vivant