

Deans and Vice Presidents 3

Full-Time Faculty 4

Members of the Law Center faculty represent an extraordinary range of professional and scholarly accomplishment in every area of legal practice. Many have achieved national or international prominence and remain actively involved in their specialized field. Members of the Georgetown faculty share a common commitment to teaching; they place a special value on accessibility and informal discussion. They share the desire to help students learn how to view each legal issue from the broadest intellectual and social perspective. They are committed to helping every student develop the habits of mind that are characteristic of the best lawyers.

William M. Treanor

Executive Vice President and Dean of the Law Center; Professor of Law
B.A., J.D., Yale; Ph.D., Harvard

In 2010, Dean Treanor joined the Law Center from Fordham Law School, where he had been dean of the law school since 2002 and Paul Fuller Professor. He had been on the Fordham faculty since 1991. He has also been a visiting professor at the Sorbonne. From 1998 to 2001, Dean Treanor served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Office of Legal Counsel, U.S. Department of Justice. From 1987 to 1990, he was Associate Counsel, Office of Independent Counsel, during the Iran/Contra investigation, and in 1990 he served as a special assistant U.S. Attorney, Misdemeanor Trial Unit, Office of the U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia. Dean Treanor was law clerk to the Honorable James L. Oakes, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, Brattleboro, Vermont. He has published widely, with a focus in constitutional law and legal history.
