

IRS Volunteer Student Intern Request Form

Contact Name:

Wayne Wiegand, Executive Assistant, IRS:TEGE, Exempt Organizations,
Rulings & Agreements Office

Phone: 202 283-8845

Fax: 202 283-9462

of positions: 2 Volunteer Intern positions to be filled

Organization Description:

The exempt organization Rulings and Agreements organization of the IRS processes applications for federal tax exemption and provides direction and guidance to the tax-exempt community. Technical guidance includes technical interpretations of laws and procedures relating to exempt organizations in conjunction with the Department of Treasury and the Office of Chief Counsel.

Short Position Description:

The student intern may do all or any of the following things:

- A. Gather information and perform research concerning a wide range of technical issues involving Exempt Organizations.
- B. Prepare summaries of legal research concerning Exempt Organization tax law and write memoranda with respect thereto.
- C. Assist in making determinations applying applicable provisions of the federal tax laws related to exempt organizations.
- D. Assist in developing rulings and technical guidance related to the administration of Exempt Organization tax law, including areas where precedents have not been established or where issues are highly controversial and sensitive.

Location: 1750 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC

PLEASE SEND RESUMES TO WAYNE.E.WIEGAND@IRS.GOV