Find a Specific Source/Title in Lexis Advance or Lexis.com
Summer 2013

The Library embeds links to databases in our Research Guides and Treatise Finders. In June 2013 Lexis made changes to its database web addresses, following their migration to one login for Lexis Advance and Lexis.com. Following this transition many of the embedded links no longer work.

If you get a website error message saying the Lexis.com “Source Not Available in Your Price Plan,” you may actually have access but you will need to follow the instructions below to locate the title you are seeking until the new Lexis Advance permalinks are available.

- Option 1: Click here for instructions on finding sources by title in Lexis Advance.
- Option 2: Click here for instructions on finding sources by title in traditional Lexis.com. (Many international and foreign law sources are currently available in Lexis.com only.)
- Option 3: Log in to LexisNexis for Law Schools (www.lexisnexis.com/lawschool) with your Lexis Advance ID and click Lexis Advance.
  - Return to the embedded link in the Research Guide or Treatise Finder and in some cases it might take you to the resource (this will not work for all links)

The librarians are available to help you. Please click here for contact information. On summer weekends and evenings, contact Lexis directly for assistance.
Locating a Source on Lexis Advance

1. Log in to LexisNexis for Law Schools and click Lexis Advance.
2. Click “Browse Sources.”
3. Type the name of the source in the “Search Sources” box on the left of the screen, or browse using the alphabetical list.
4. Once you have retrieved the source, you are able to choose to access it through the Table of Contents or add the source to the Lexis Advance search box. You can also view information about the source.

5. The librarians are available to help you. Please click here for contact information. On summer weekends and evenings, contact Lexis directly for assistance.
Locating a Source on Lexis.com

1. Log in to LexisNexis for Law Schools and click Lexis Advance.
2. At the Lexis Advance main page, click the red Research tab at the top left, and choose Lexis.com.
3. Click “Find A Source” on the horizontal bar near the top of the page.
4. Type the name of the source in the “Option 1” box, or browse using the alphabetical list in Option 2. Click the link for the source.

5. Search the source using Terms & Connectors or Natural Language, or choose “Browse TOC” to use the table of contents.

6. The librarians are available to help you. Please click here for contact information. On summer weekends and evenings, contact Lexis directly for assistance.