Preamble

We, the Students of Georgetown University Law Center, establish this Constitution for our Student Bar Association in order to represent the entirety of the Law Center community in furthering our education; promoting fellowship and goodwill among students, faculty, staff and the administration; and advocating our concerns. We therefore require that the duties and offices here assigned be fulfilled according to the highest ethical standards of the legal profession.

Article I – Name

1. The name of this organization shall be the Student Bar Association of Georgetown University Law Center, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II – Membership

1. All students of Georgetown University Law Center shall be members of the Association.

2. Membership shall terminate upon separation from the Law Center by reason of graduation, withdrawal, or dismissal.

Article III – Purposes

1. The House of Delegates and Officers of the Association shall fulfill the following purposes, in accordance with the desires of the Law Center community:

   (a) The House of Delegates and Officers of the Association shall act as representatives of the entire student body of the Law Center and shall primarily serve the needs of the students.

   (b) The House of Delegates and Officers of the Association shall coordinate student organizations and activities.

   (c) The House of Delegates and Officers of the Association shall apportion student funds to student organizations and activities in accordance with the Bylaws and internal operating guidelines of the Appropriations Committee, and hold all recipients accountable for their use.

(d) The House of Delegates and Officers of the Association shall act as advocates for the concerns of the entire Law Center community.

Article IV – Executive Board

1. Composition & Voting Rights

(a) The Executive Board shall be composed of a President, a Day Vice President, an Evening Vice President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, an Attorney General, and a Chief of Staff.

(b) Each member of the Executive Board shall have one vote in the Executive Board. The President, Day Vice President, Evening Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary shall each have one vote in the House of Delegates and shall be considered full members thereof. The Attorney General and Chief of Staff shall be non-voting members of the House of Delegates, with full privileges to attend meetings and participate in debate.

2. Powers and Duties

(a) The Executive Board shall have the authority to promulgate resolutions and submit recommendations to the House of Delegates, and to perform such other duties as the House of Delegates may direct.

   i. The Executive Board may amend any resolution submitted to the Secretary for placement on the Association’s agenda with the approval of the sponsor of the resolution. The Secretary shall notify the sponsor of the resolution and House when amendments are adopted.

(b) The Executive Board shall have the authority to enter into contracts on behalf of the Association, and to pay the debts of the Association;

(c) The Executive Board shall submit to the House of Delegates for confirmation a list of nominees to be added to Student–Faculty Committees and the standing and ad hoc committees of the Association.

(d) The Executive Board may establish additional voting positions on the Board as it deems necessary, provided that the appointed membership shall not exceed the elected membership, except in the cases of emergency or temporary vacancy.

3. Expeditied Voting

(a) Where a decision which would normally require the approval of the House of Delegates must be made within 48 hours or is needed during the period between the close of the final meeting of the House of Delegates of the academic year and the opening of the first meeting of the House of Delegates held in the ensuing academic year, each voting member of the House of Delegates shall be contacted by the Executive Board and may cast their vote by any means necessary.

(b) Expedited votes shall be officially recorded by the Secretary.
4. Attendance and Removal

(a) Any Officer who has been absent from more than four meetings of the House of Delegates during their term of office, regardless of excuse, shall automatically forfeit membership in the House of Delegates and Executive Board.

   i. An Officer is absent upon failing to respond to roll call unless the officer arrives no more than 15 minutes after roll is called;

   ii. An Officer is absent if the Officer leaves the meeting and does not return prior to adjournment of the meeting;

   iii. An Officer is absent if the Officer is absent for more than 20 minutes of the meeting.

ii. Assist in the advocacy, programming, and operations of the Association;
iii. Preside over debate in the House of Delegates in the absence of the Attorney General; and

iv. Perform such other duties as the President or the House of Delegates may direct.

Article VI – The House of Delegates

1. Composition

(a) The House of Delegates shall consist of the voting members of the Executive Board and the elected Delegates. There shall be:

i. Two delegates elected during Fall Elections from and by each first year section;

ii. Five delegates elected during Fall Elections from and by the L.L.M. class;

1. Joint Degree students are eligible to vote and run for their 1L section delegation in the Fall Election cycle, as well as an officer position and their respective rising 2L and 3L delegation. Once a Joint Degree student completes the course requirements for the Law Center’s JD Program, that student will only be eligible to run in the next Fall Election cycle to be an LL.M. Delegate.

iii. One delegate elected during Fall Elections from and by the S.J.D. class;

iv. Two delegates elected during Fall Elections from and by the entering transfer class;

v. Ten delegates elected at-large during Spring Elections from and by the rising 2L class;

vi. Two delegates elected during Spring Elections from and by the rising 2E class, including evening-to-day transfers;

vii. Ten delegates elected at-large during Spring Elections from and by the rising 3L class;

viii. Two delegates elected during Spring Elections from and by the rising 3E class;

ix. Two delegates elected during Spring Elections from and by the rising 4E class; and

x. One delegate selected in the Fall Semester by application from all eligible students enrolled in a Dual Degree Program, and confirmed by a majority vote of the House of Delegates. Dual Degree students are eligible to vote and run for their 1L section delegation, and shall be eligible to vote and run for an officer position or their respective rising 2L and 3L delegation, provided:

1. No Dual Degree student may apply for the position of Dual Degree Delegate in any Fall Semester after having previously run for the position of 2L or 3L Delegate in the most recent Spring Election.
2. Powers and Duties

(a) Each member of the House of Delegates shall have one vote. In the event of a tie vote, the Resolution is not approved.

(b) Each Delegate shall serve on at least one standing or ad hoc committee.

3. Resolutions

(a) The House of Delegates shall exercise, by resolution, the legislative authority of the Association, with the power to amend any resolution submitted.

(b) Resolutions may be submitted for consideration by the House of Delegates by either a member of the House of Delegates or on behalf of a Committee by the Committee Chair. All resolutions shall be submitted to the Secretary, who will communicate the text of the resolution to the House.

(c) Any voting member of the House of Delegates may make a motion to refer any resolution to a standing or ad hoc committee of the Association with appropriate jurisdiction over the subject matter of the resolution. If approved upon a majority vote of those voting yea or nay, the resolution will be removed from consideration on the Association’s agenda and will be submitted to the appropriate committee for consideration. A motion to refer a resolution to committee may not be entertained on any resolution that has already been considered once by a committee pursuant to a previous motion to refer.

(d) A committee may take a nonbinding vote on resolutions referred to it, but shall consider the resolution and present it along with the sponsor to the next meeting of the House of Delegates unless the sponsor chooses to withdraw the resolution from consideration.

(e) Any voting member of the House of Delegates may make a motion to table any resolution. If approved by a majority vote of those voting yea or nay, the resolution will be removed from consideration on the Association’s agenda. The resolution must be considered at the next meeting of the House of Delegates, unless the sponsor chooses to withdraw the resolution from consideration.

(f) Unless otherwise specified in this Constitution, a majority vote of those voting yea or nay shall be sufficient to adopt a resolution.

(g) A resolution may be expedited pursuant to Article IV, Section 3.

4. Funding

(a) The House of Delegates may accept any funds designated for the use of the Association by the University, the Law Center, or any other organization or individual.

5. Regular Meetings

(a) The House of Delegates shall meet at least once each month during the months of September, October, November, January, February, March, and April.
(b) Delegates shall be given at least 24 hours’ notice of all meetings of the House of Delegates.
(c) All meetings of the House of Delegates shall be open to any member of the Association.
(d) Meetings of the House of Delegates shall be guided by the Judiciary Committee Bylaws.

6. Special Meetings

(a) Special meetings of the House of Delegates may be held at the call of the President, two members of the Executive Board, or one-third of the membership of the House of Delegates.

(b) Notice of Special Meetings must be given to the Executive Board before a Special Meeting is held.

7. Quorum

(a) All meetings of the House of Delegates require a quorum consisting of a majority of the voting membership of the House of Delegates. If a quorum is not available within a reasonable time, the meeting shall be postponed until such time as quorum is available. Abstentions shall not affect quorum.

8. Proxy Voting

(a) Any voting member of the House of Delegates shall be allowed to vote by proxy at any meeting of the House of Delegates, but members casting votes by proxy will not be counted as present at the meeting unless specifically authorized by the Executive Board prior to the calling of the role.

(b) A voting member of the House of Delegates seeking to vote by proxy shall notify both the proxy-holder and the Secretary before the meeting of the House of Delegates is brought to order. In doing so, the member shall describe the scope of the proxy-holder’s voting authority. The Secretary shall publish the names of the member and their proxy-holder, and the scope of the proxy-holder’s voting authority in the minutes of the meeting.

(c) Any voting member of the House of Delegates or Executive Board may designate any other voting member of the House or Executive Board as a proxy-holder.

9. Attendance and Removal

(a) Any Delegate who has been absent from more than four meetings of the House of Delegates, including all missed votes for constitutional and bylaws amendments, during their term of office, regardless of excuse, shall automatically forfeit membership in the House of Delegates.

   i. A Delegate is absent upon failing to respond to roll call unless the officer arrives no more than 15 minutes after roll is called;

   ii. A Delegate is absent if the Delegate leaves the meeting and does not return prior to adjournment of the meeting;

iii. A Delegate is absent if the Delegate is absent for more than 20 minutes of the meeting.

Article VII – Association Funds

1. Budget

   (a) A budget for the Association Fund shall be prepared by the Treasurer and approved by a majority vote of the House of Delegates.

2. Funds

   (a) The Association Fund is the entire amount of money granted from the Georgetown University Law Center Finance Committee for use by the Association.

   (b) The Student Organizations Fund is the portion of the Association Fund used to allocate monies to student organizations by the Appropriations Committee.

   (c) The Operations Fund is the portion of the Association Fund used by the Association for its internal operations.

   (d) The Special Events Fund is the portion of the Association Fund used for all other Association-sponsored events.

   (e) The Treasurer, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall have the authority to establish and delineate additional funding categories as necessary.

3. Approval of Appropriations

   (a) All appropriations exceeding $1000 must be approved by the House of Delegates. All other appropriations must be approved by the Appropriations Committee or the Executive Board.

4. Right to Review

   (a) Any appropriation or expenditure of Association Funds may be subject to review at the request of any member of the House of Delegates.

   (b) A majority of the House of Delegates shall have the authority to rescind, reallocate, or reappropriate any unspent monies in any Association account, fund, or appropriation.

5. Right to Address the House of Delegates

   (a) All representatives of student organizations requesting an allocation or expenditure may personally appear before the House of Delegates and shall be informed of their right to do so.
6. Prohibitions

(a) Under no circumstance may Association funds be used to support or oppose a candidate for election as an Officer, Delegate, or other position within the Association.

Article VIII – Committees

1. Standing Committees

(a) The House of Delegates shall maintain the following Standing Committees: Academic Affairs, Appropriations, Campus Services, Career Services, Communications, Community Enrichment, Diversity, Elections, Evening Student Affairs, Experiential Learning, Judiciary, Social, and Special Events.

(b) The House of Delegates shall maintain a Director of Alumni Initiatives, a Director of Development, and an American Bar Association Representative.

(c) All Chairs and members of Standing Committees must be Officers or Delegates, nominated by the Executive Board and confirmed by a majority vote of the House of Delegates.

2. Ad Hoc Committees

(a) The President, Executive Board, and House of Delegates shall have the power to establish and dissolve such Ad Hoc Committees as are deemed necessary.

(b) At least one Chair of an Ad Hoc Committee must be a Delegate or member of the Executive Board, nominated by the Executive Board and confirmed by a majority vote of the House of Delegates.

(c) All members of the Association are eligible to serve on an Ad Hoc Committee.

3. Student-Faculty Committees

(a) All members of the Association are eligible to serve on Student-Faculty Committees.

(b) The Appointments Committee shall publish a list of Student-Faculty Committees and administer the nomination process for appointments. Nominees must be confirmed by a majority vote of the House of Delegates.

4. Rules of Procedure

(a) All committees may adopt such rules, regulations, guidelines, and procedures as are necessary for their continued operation. Where appropriate, rules, regulations, guidelines, and procedures may be presented to the House of Delegates for adoption as Bylaws. Unless a committee adopts Bylaws to the contrary, the Judiciary Committee’s standard rules of procedure shall govern all committee meetings.

5. Committee Chair Duties
(a) Committee Chairs shall present such reports as the House of Delegates, Executive Board, or President may direct.

(b) Committee Chairs shall report on all expenditures of committee funds to the Treasurer in a timely manner.
Article IX – Elections

1. Standards

(a) The elections of Delegates and Officers shall be fair, open, unbiased, and held to the highest ethical standards of democratic electoral conduct for participants, election officials, and monitors.

2. Administration, Timing, and Certification of Elections

(a) The Elections Committee shall establish, maintain, and publicize the procedures to be followed for administering Association elections, and shall organize, conduct, monitor, and certify elections for all voting Delegates and voting members of the Executive Board.

(b) Fall Elections shall be conducted and certified no later than September 30.

(c) Spring Elections shall be conducted and certified no later than April 15.

(d) Runoff elections shall occur on the earliest possible date following the certification of election results.

(e) Elections and runoff elections shall be held electronically whenever practical.

3. Conflicts of Interest, Recusal, and Removal

(a) Under no circumstances shall any candidate for an elected position have any responsibility for organizing, conducting, monitoring, or certifying elections.

(b) If any member of the Elections Committee believes that he or she will be unable to remain impartial in any respect regarding an election, the member shall immediately notify the Chair of the Elections Committee and recuse themself from participation in that election cycle.

(c) In the event that the Chair of the Elections Committee is recused from their duties, the Executive Board shall nominate an Acting Chair subject to approval by the House of Delegates.

(d) The House of Delegates shall retain the authority to remove any member of the Elections Committee by a two-thirds vote, pursuant to the procedures expressed in Article XI of this Constitution.

4. Multiple Candidacies

(a) An individual may be nominated for one elected Executive Board position and one Delegate position in the same election cycle.

5. Executive Board

(a) The President, Day Vice President, Evening Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected by a majority vote of the Association.
(b) If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, a run-off between the top two vote earners shall be held to determine the winner of the election.

(c) In the event of a tie after a run-off election, a two-thirds vote of the outgoing House of Delegates shall determine the winner of the election.

(d) Should the candidate who receives a majority of votes be a write-in candidate, that person shall be given two days to accept the position and, in so doing, shall be declared the winner of the election.

6. House of Delegates

(a) Delegates shall be elected by a plurality vote.

(b) Should the candidate who receives a plurality of votes be a write-in candidate, that person shall be given two days to accept the position and, in so doing, shall be declared the winner of the election.

(c) In the event of a tie, there shall be a run-off election; whoever receives the majority of the votes shall be declared the winner of the election.

(d) Should a write-in candidate decline to serve in the position to which they were elected, the person receiving the next highest vote count shall be declared the winner of the election.
Article X – Transition Period

1. Duration of Service

(a) The Transition Meeting shall be the first meeting of the newly constituted House of Delegates after the Spring Semester Elections. All Officers and Delegates shall serve until the Transition Meeting following their election or appointment.

2. Transition Period

(a) The period of time between the certification of spring semester election results and the official transition meeting shall be the transition period, subject to the following requirements:

i. General Operations. The outgoing Executive Board and House of Delegates shall maintain authority over the Association in accordance with this Constitution.

ii. Training. The incoming Executive Board and House of Delegates shall be trained by, and shadow, the outgoing Executive Board and House of Delegates, receiving in a good faith effort all necessary information, guidance, and support required for the effective administration of the Association.

iii. Appointments. The incoming Executive Board shall prepare the nominations of Committee Chairs for approval by the incoming House of Delegates at the transition meeting.

iv. Appropriations. The outgoing Treasurer shall assist the incoming Treasurer with all necessary preparations for the Association Budget and Fall Student Organization Budget.

Article XI – Removal and Vacancies

1. Procedure for Removal

(a) A Petition for Removal may only be used to initiate removal proceedings against an individual Officer, Delegate, Chair or member of a Standing or Ad Hoc Committee, or student member of a Student-Faculty Committee. When a member holds multiple positions in the Association, the Petition must specify the positions from which the member is to be removed. A single Petition may seek to remove a member from more than one position.

(b) A Petition for Removal must include a short statement of the reasons for removal. The person named in the Petition shall be granted an opportunity to respond to any allegations made in the Petition.

(c) A Petition must be signed by a majority of the voting members of the House of Delegates or three hundred members of the Association and be presented to the Judiciary Committee.

(d) The person named in the Petition shall be notified in writing and given a copy of the Petition and signatures prior to consideration by the Judiciary Committee. The person named in the Petition may not vote on the disposition of their removal at any stage of the process.
(e) The Judiciary Committee shall review a signed Petition and approve its certification upon the validation of signatures. A decision to not certify a Petition may be appealed to the House of Delegates, which may certify by a majority vote. A certified Petition shall be presented to the House of Delegates, which shall allow a full week for consideration before disposition.

(f) Following the consideration period, a special meeting of the House of Delegates shall be called to dispose of the Petition within fourteen calendar days.

(g) If the President is named in the Petition, the Day Vice President shall assume all privileges, duties, and responsibilities of the President until the disposition of the Petition.

2. Voting

(a) A three-fourths vote of the House of Delegates shall be necessary for removal. Failure to vote in person or by other recorded means prior to the special meeting shall be considered an absence for purposes of attendance.

3. Vacancies: Executive Board

(a) If the President resigns or is removed, the Day Vice President shall assume the Presidency.

(b) The President, with the consent of a majority of the House of Delegates, shall fill vacancies on the Executive Board.

i. All voting members of the House of Delegates shall be eligible for appointment as Day Vice President, Evening Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary;

ii. All members of the Association shall be eligible for appointment as Attorney General and Chief of Staff.

(c) If a Delegate is appointed Attorney General or Chief of Staff, that member shall resign from their position as Delegate and the resulting vacancy shall be filled pursuant to Section 4 of this article.

4. Vacancies: House of Delegates

(a) Vacancies in the House of Delegates arising after the certification of spring election results, but before the start of the fall election cycle in September, shall be filled in the following manner:

i. The vacant position will first be offered to the person next in line based on the spring certified election results, including all candidates receiving at least 10 write-in votes. If that person does not accept, the position will be offered to the next person in order of election results.

ii. If multiple candidates received the same number of votes so that there is no outright vote leader or if the vacancy remains unfilled after exhausting the list of vote-earners from the spring election, including all candidates not on the ballot but having received at least 10 write-in votes, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote cast by the remaining members of the delegation whose vacancy is to be filled.

(b) Vacancies in the House of Delegates arising after the commencement of the fall election cycle, but before the commencement of the spring election cycle, shall be filled by a majority vote cast by the remaining members of the delegation whose vacancy is to be filled. Provided:

i. Vacancies arising in a delegation, the majority of whose membership is elected in the fall, shall be filled pursuant to the election results procedure outlined in Section 4(a).

(c) If the procedure above is exhausted and a delegation is unable to fill the vacancy in a reasonable period of time, the Executive Board shall have the authority to fill the vacancy by majority vote.

(d) A majority vote of the Executive Board or Elections Committee shall be necessary to declare a vacancy. The Elections Committee may establish the procedure and timeline for filling vacancies by internal rules.

(e) A delegation shall consist of the Delegates of the appropriate class of the Association (Either 1L, 2L, 3L, E, or LLM). The Evening delegation shall include the Evening Vice President.

5. Vacancies: Committees

(a) The Executive Board shall fill committee vacancies in consultation with Committee Chairs.

Article XII – Amendments and Referenda

1. Constitutional Amendments

(a) Any member of the Association may propose an amendment to this Constitution by submitting a resolution to the Secretary, who must communicate the text of the resolution and amendment to the House of Delegates at least three days prior to its consideration.

(b) Following debate on the proposed amendment, the Secretary shall commence a roll call vote, which shall remain open for three days following the close of the meeting, or until all eligible delegates submit a vote, whichever occurs first.

(c) At the close of the voting period, a two-thirds vote of the House of Delegates shall be necessary to ratify an amendment.

(d) Failure to vote in person or by other recorded means during the voting period shall be considered an absence for the purposes of attendance.

2. Bylaws Amendments

(a) Amendments to the Association Bylaws shall follow the procedure described in Section 1 of this Article, except only that a majority vote shall be necessary to ratify such amendments.
3. Referenda

(a) A Petition for Referendum may be used to adopt amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws, and to promulgate resolutions on behalf of the Association.

(b) The Elections Committee shall present a Petition for Referendum to the Association for adoption upon the validation of signatures of three hundred members of the Association or by a two-thirds vote of the House of Delegates.

(c) A majority of the votes cast in favor of the Referendum shall be necessary for adoption, provided that a majority of the Association shall have voted.

4. Effect

(a) An amendment to the Constitution or Bylaws shall take effect immediately unless otherwise stipulated in the resolution.

(b) A Referendum shall take effect upon the certification of votes by the Elections Committee.
