

Ensure every police officer in the United States has the opportunity to receive meaningful active bystandership training.

Serve as a national resource hub for thoughtful and sound training materials and model policies.

Provide guidance to police agencies that want to develop active bystandership programs and build the cultures that sustain them.

Establish standards and benchmarks for effective active bystandership programs.

Connect ABLE partners, agencies, and community groups across the U.S.