

CTLS Global Conference 2024

“Constitutionalism in Times of Crisis: Transnational Perspectives on Challenges & Ways Forward”

May 9, 2024

Co-organizers: Professors Yvonne Tew & Yuval Shany
(CTLS Academic Co-Directors 2023-2024)

CTLS Global Conference

Venue: Center for Transnational Legal Studies (CTLS)

4th Floor, Bush House North West Wing, 57 Aldwych, London WC2B 4PJ

9:30-10:30	Panel I: A Democratic Crisis? Chair: Madhavi Sunder (Georgetown) Lorenzo Zucca (King’s) – The transformations of the idea of Mixed Government as a cure to the ills of liberal constitutionalism Stefania Romana Gianoncelli (Torino) – No Taxation, without Representation: A Matter of Democracy? Muthucumaraswamy Sornarajah (NUS) – The Failure of Democratic Constitutionalism in Post-Colonial, Plural States: Exploring Solutions Using Sri Lanka as the Paradigm Case
------------	--

10:45-11:45	Panel II: Unfolding Constitutional Crises Chair: Franz Werro (Fribourg/Georgetown) Max Steuer (Jindal) – Courting Constitutional Crises: A 'Visegrad Four' Perspective Oana Stefan (King’s) – Constitutional Conflict and Transnational Soft Law Sergio Dellavalle (Torino) – The Shaky Democratic Legitimacy of Cosmopolitan Law and Its Destiny in Times of Crisis
12:00-13:00	Panel III: Growing Challenges for Constitutional law Chair: Roger Boada (ESADE) Yoav Dotan (HUJI) – Democratic Backsliding and Judicial Review – Disqualification of Populist Candidates Maura Mattalia and Eugenia Jona (Torino) – The Challenge of Protecting Future Generations through the Lens of Constitutionalism: Tools for Protecting a Future Collective Interest David Dyzenhaus (Toronto) – Authoritarianism and Legality
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-15:00	Panel IV: Crisis in Constitutional Adjudication Chair: Catherine Bond (UNSW) David Super (Georgetown) – Adjudication Failure Walter Stoffel (Fribourg) – Habeat Corpus at all costs: From Judgment at Nuremberg (1961) to Anatomy of a Fall (2023) Shimon Shetreet (HUJI) – Reflections on the Judicial Response to the Constitutional Crisis in Israel 2019-2023

15:15-16:15	Panel V: New Directions? New Ideas? Chair: Eva Maria Belser (Fribourg) Luca Rubini (Turino) – Paradigm change? The Constitutional Implications of the Rise of Unilateralism in International Trade Relations Gregg Bloche (Georgetown) – The Medicalizing of Constitutional Judgment Pier Giorgio Chiara (Bologna/CTLS alumnus) – A Theoretical Framework for the Development of a New Right to Cybersecurity
-------------	--

Keynote Panel & CTLS Alumni Event

Venue: Large Pension Room, Gray’s Inn, 8 South Square, London WC1R 5ET

17:30-18:45	A Dialogue between Constitutional Judges: Judging in Times of Crisis Moderators: Yvonne Tew (Georgetown) and Yuval Shany (HUJI) Keynote Speakers: Brenda Hale, Baroness Hale of Richmond (Former President, U.K. Supreme Court) & Kate O’Regan (Professor of Human Rights Law & Director, Bonavero Institute of Human Rights, Oxford; Former Judge, Constitutional Court of South Africa)
-------------	--

If you are interested in attending, please
RSVP via email.