

NUS CTLS Summer Scholars in Residence 2024

Ernest Lim

Vice Dean (Faculty Development); Professor of Law

Ernest Lim is Vice Dean for Faculty Development and Professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore. He writes on the implications of corporate law and private law for sustainability, climate change and AI. He will be working on corporate human rights due diligence at CTLS.

Mark McBride

Associate Professor

Mark holds advanced degrees in Law and in Philosophy. He has published work in the leading journals on diverse topics in legal theory, including legal reasoning and general jurisprudence, but his chief principal research focus is rights theory.

As a Scholar-in-Residence at CTLS, he will work on his book manuscript-in-progress, The Tracking Theory of Rights.
