

NUS CTLS Summer Scholars in Residence 2026

Mark McBride

Sheridan Fellow

Mark holds advanced degrees in Law and in Philosophy. He has published work in the leading journals on diverse topics in legal theory, including legal reasoning and general jurisprudence, but his chief principal research focus is rights theory. His book, The Tracking Theory of Rights (Hart), is currently in production as part of Hart's Law & Practical Reason series.

