

COMPLICITY AND LESSER EVILS

PANEL DISCUSSION

Presented by the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics and the Center on Ethics and the Legal Profession

Monday,
April 19 th

At 1pm - 3pm EST

Join the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics and the Center on Ethics and the Legal Profession for a panel discussion on whether government lawyers should stay or leave during an unethical regime.

The conversation will center on Professor David Luban's groundbreaking analysis of the actions of two Nazi lawyers during the Third Reich. Join us and our panel of distinguished ethics scholars for this powerful and important conversation.

Register Here:

<https://forms.gle/hBEJGgeRnWQxEBS7>

Moderator:

Professor Mitt Regan

Georgetown University
Law Center

Professor
David Luban

Georgetown University
Law Center

Professor
Leora Bilsky

Professor of Law, Tel
Aviv University

Dr. Natalie Davidson

Lecturer of Law, Tel
Aviv University

Professor
Kathleen Clark

Professor of Law,
Washington University
in St. Louis School of Law

Erica Newland

Counsel, Protect Democracy

Dr. Shannon Prince

Associate, Boies
Schiller Flexner

For questions or accommodation requests relating to a disability, please email ss4010@georgetown.edu by 4/17