Required Application Materials:

- Application Form Available below.
- Curriculum Vitae
- Research Proposal/Scholarly Agenda The Scholarly Agenda should be approximately 5 – 10 pages in length and should describe the project or projects you expect to accomplish as a Fellow. A successful agenda succinctly states the intended thesis or argument you hope to advance in each proposed piece of scholarship, and may also suggest possible connections between projects if more than one project is contemplated. The Research Agenda should convey scholarly intent and potential but need not be footnoted, nor are bibliographies expected. Please preface your agenda with an Executive Summary (one page or less) of your primary proposed research project.
- Personal Statement [optional] The Personal Statement should be approximately two pages and is your opportunity to describe your background, professional goals, or other personal information you feel is relevant to your candidacy.
- Published Works or Writing Sample Please provide copies of any legal scholarship, including student notes, that you have published. If you have not published any scholarship, please send a writing sample.
- Transcripts Please include official transcripts for your undergraduate, J.D., and any other degrees you have earned.
- Two Letters of Recommendation Your letters of recommendation should preferably be written by law professors, but if this is not possible, letters from other professors or professional references are acceptable. Letters of recommendation may be sent directly from recommenders.
