

TECH FOUNDATIONS

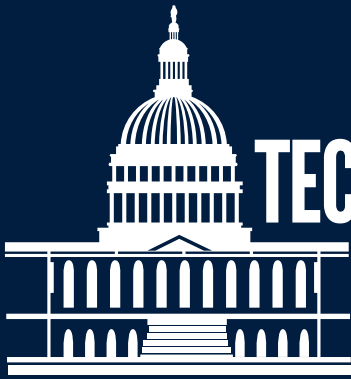

FOR GOVERNMENT STAFF

SPOTLIGHT ON AI

Day 1 Wednesday, August 6 9:30 am - 3:30 pm
9:30 AM – 10:00 AM	Coffee and Registration
10:00 AM – 10:10 AM	Opening Remarks Natalie Roisman, Executive Director, Georgetown Law Institute for Technology Law & Policy
10:10 AM – 11:10 AM	Artificial Intelligence Law: Foundational Legal and Ethical Challenges of AI Paul Ohm, Professor and Chief Data Officer, Georgetown University Law Center; co-author, Artificial Intelligence Law casebook (forthcoming)
11:10 AM – 11:20 AM	Break
11:20 AM – 12:15 PM	Not All AI is Created Equal: Types of AI and Their Governance Challenges Kendrea Beers, Research Analyst, Georgetown Center for Security and Emerging Technology
12:15 PM – 1:20 PM	Lunch and Keynote: The Importance of Technical Understanding and Bipartisan Compromise in Effective, Lasting Tech Policy David Redl, Founder and CEO, Salt Point Strategies and Senior Fellow, University of Colorado Silicon Flatirons Center
1:20 PM – 3:30 PM (Break 2:30-2:40 PM)	Cutting Through the AI Hype: A Workshop on What's Illegal, What's Harmful, and What Staffers Need to Know Stephanie Nguyen, Senior Research Fellow, Georgetown Tech & Society and Georgetown Law Institute for Technology Law & Policy Erie Meyer, Senior Research Fellow, Georgetown Tech & Society and Georgetown Law Institute for Technology Law & Policy Reed Showalter, Senior Research Fellow, Georgetown Tech & Society and Knight-Georgetown Institute

To learn more about the Georgetown Law Tech Institute, today's speakers, and their recommended reading, scan the QR code here:

TECH FOUNDATIONS

FOR GOVERNMENT STAFF

SPOTLIGHT ON AI

Day 2 Thursday, August 7 9:30 am-3:30 pm
9:30 AM – 9:50 AM	Coffee and Registration
9:50 AM – 10:40 AM	Global AI Governance: Regional Regulatory Philosophies, Cross-Border Challenges Anupam Chander, Scott K. Ginsburg Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center
10:40 AM – 10:50 AM	Break
10:50 AM – 11:45 AM	Trends in State AI Law and Policy in the Shadow of Federal Moratoriums Travis Hall, Director for State Engagement, Center for Democracy and Technology
11:45 AM – 12:30 PM	Key Takeaways from the New White House AI Action Plan and Executive Orders John Hopkins-Gillis (L'20), Director of Policy and Product Counsel, Trustible Matthew Sparks (L'24), Justice Fellow, Georgetown Law Institute for Technology Law & Policy
12:30 PM – 1:15 PM	Case Studies on AI Oversight: Autonomous AI Christabel Randolph (LLM'23), Associate Director, Center for AI and Digital Policy Missy Cummings, Professor and Director of Mason Autonomy and Robotics Center (MARC), George Mason University; First American Bank Chair
1:15 PM – 2:00 PM	Lunch and Interactive Discussion: Using AI in Policy Work Dr. Maya Kornberg, Senior Research Fellow and Manager, Elections and Government Program, NYU Brennan Center for Justice
2:00 PM – 2:45 PM	Legal Tech Update: AI in the Practice of Law and Policymaking Process Ed Walters, CIO, VLex; Adjunct Professor, Georgetown Law
2:45 PM – 3:30 PM	Tech Policy Careers Roundtable

To learn more about the Georgetown Law Tech Institute, today's speakers, and their recommended reading, scan the QR code here:

