PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

Personal Statement:

You may write your personal statement on any subject of importance that you feel will assist us in our decision. (Please double- space.)

Résumé:

Describing schools attended, dates of attendance and degree(s) awarded; work experience, including employer, position, nature of work and dates of employment (please include part-time employment during the academic year); extracurricular/community activities, including nature and length of involvement; and scholastic honors, including academic awards, scholarships or fellowships. (Max 2 pages.)

Optional Statement:

The Law Center recruits students from diverse racial, ethnic, economic and educational backgrounds. The Admissions Committee encourages you to attach a brief statement that will enable the Committee to understand the contribution your personal background would make to the student body of Georgetown University Law Center.

By signing this application or by transmitting it electronically, I certify that the statements made in this application for admission to Georgetown University Law Center are complete and accurate. I understand that I am under a continuing obligation to provide accurate, current and complete information and will promptly inform Georgetown Law, in writing, if there are any changes in any of the facts indicated herein. I understand that providing false, misleading, or incomplete factual information will result in immediate revocation of any offer of admission. If admitted, I am aware that academic institutions (post-secondary), which I have previously attended, will be contacted to verify that I have not been subjected to any disciplinary action or academic censure.

I further understand that if Georgetown Law believes that I have provided false or misleading information, Georgetown Law may submit information to the LSAC Subcommittee on Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process for investigation under the Law School Admission Council Rules Governing Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admission Process. If misconduct or an irregularity is determined as a result of the investigation, all schools to which I have applied, or may apply, will be notified.

Georgetown Law reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission or take any other action, for reasons including, but not limited to, if an applicant engages in behavior that is dishonest or evidences lack of integrity or trustworthiness.
