

Accessing Social Service, Educational, and Mental Health Resources for Youth in Virginia

Created and maintained by the Mid-Atlantic Juvenile Defender Center and the Georgetown Juvenile Justice Initiative.

This project was supported by Grant Number 2015-ZE-BX-K003 awarded by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this project are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of Justice.

Accessing Social Service, Educational, and Mental Health Resources for Youth in Virginia is a regularly updated guide that can be used by youth, families, juvenile defenders, and other stakeholders in Virginia’s juvenile justice system. It was first released in February of 2019 and resources will continue to be added and updated.

This resource guide is managed by the Mid-Atlantic Juvenile Defender Center and the Georgetown Juvenile Justice Initiative. If you know of resources that should be added to this guide, please contact Rebba Omer (ro295@georgetown.edu), Juvenile Defense and Policy Fellow at the Georgetown Juvenile Justice Initiative.
