The following Georgetown Law classes have been pre-approved by the D.C. Bar as counting toward the 26 credits under Rule 46(c)(4):

Commercial Law: Sales and Leases
Commercial Law: Secured Transactions
Criminal Law
Decedents’ Estates
Evidence
Family Law I: Marriage and Divorce
Family Law II: Child, Parent and the State
Federal Courts and the Federal System
Introduction to Contracts
Introduction to Property
Introduction to Torts
Introduction to U.S. Civil Procedure
Introduction to U.S. Constitutional Law
U.S. Criminal Procedure
White Collar Crime

The following classes DO NOT COUNT toward the D.C. Bar requirements:

Foundations of American Law
Introduction to U.S. Legal Systems
Professional Responsibility [unless the class began prior to the DC Bar’s adoption of the Uniform Bar Exam on March 1, 2016]
U.S. Legal Research, Analysis and Writing