

Innovative Policing Program
GEORGETOWN LAW

Active Bystandership for Law Enforcement - “ABLE” - Virtual Open House, July 15, 2020

Start (ET)	Description	Participants
11:00 AM	Welcome to ABLE and Introduction	Professor Christy Lopez, Co-Director, Innovative Policing Program (Georgetown Law); Jonathan Aronie, Chair, ABLE Board of Advisors (Sheppard Mullin)
11:05 AM	Chiefs’ Perspective	Commissioner Michael Harrison (Baltimore PD) Commissioner Danielle Outlaw (Philadelphia PD)
11:15 AM	Active Bystandership: What it is and how it works	Mr. Aronie
11:30 AM	Georgetown Law Innovative Policing Program’s ABLE Project: A national solution for a national problem	Professor Lopez
11:45 AM	Tested & Approved: EPIC and the New Orleans Police Department	Chief Paul Noel (New Orleans PD) Chief John Thomas (New Orleans PD)
12:00 PM	Active Bystandership as a Vehicle for Cultural Change	Sheriff Sue Rahr (Washington State Training Commission)
12:15 PM	BREAK
12:30 PM	The Roots of the Training and Transformation in Policing: A research perspective	Dr. Ervin Staub (Professor Emeritus, University of Massachusetts)
12:45 PM	Officers’ Perspective	Officer Terry Bean (New Orleans PD) Lt. Jodie McFadden (Baltimore PD)
1:00 PM	Active Bystandership as a Means Of Promoting Officer Health & Wellness	Dr. Joel Dvoskin (University of Arizona)
1:15 PM	Community Perspective	Chief Arlinda Westbrook (New Orleans PD IA) Mr. Ted Quant (New Orleans) Ms. Mary Howell (New Orleans)
1:35 PM	What the ABLE “Train The Trainer” Event Will Look Like	Dr. Deidre Magee (New Orleans PD) Sheriff Sue Rahr (Washington State)
1:50 PM	ABLE Training: The “Price” of Admission	Professor Lopez Mr. Aronie
2:00 PM	Closing Comments and Coming Events	Mr. Aronie
2:10 PM	Q&A	Participants
2:30 PM	Adjourn	