

Georgetown University Law Center
Employment Statistics for U.S. Trained Tax LL.M. Graduates (as of October 30, 2020)

Class of 2020

Employed at Graduation

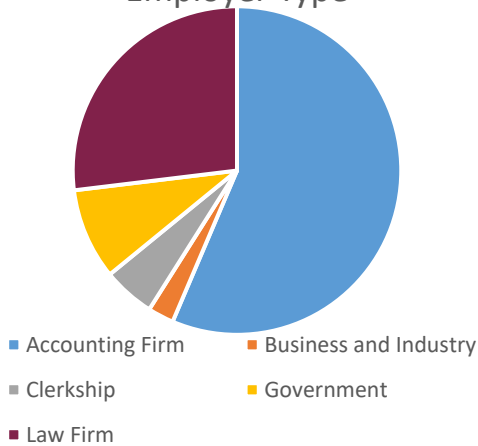

Employed at Graduation¹

	2020	2019	2018	2017	2016
Employed	90%*	94%	95%	94%	99%
Not Employed/Unidentified	10%	6%	5%	6%	1%

* This figure includes a small number of students who had originally secured employment and were scheduled to start on or before October 2020, but whose start dates were subsequently postponed due to COVID-19

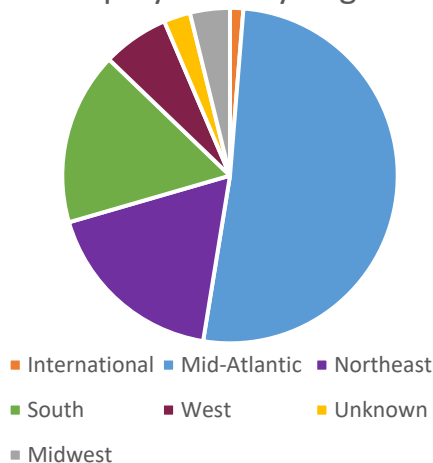

Employer Type

Employer Type

	2020	2019	2018	2017	2016
Law Firm	27%	24%	34%	36%	31%
Accounting Firm ²	56%	55%	45%	46%	47%
Government ³	14%	10%	12%	9%	12%
Business and Industry ⁴	3%	9%	9%	9%	10%
Academia ⁵	/	2%	/	/	/

Employment by Region

Employment by Region

	2020	2019	2018	2017	2016
Mid-Atlantic (DC, MD, VA, DE, WV)	53%	44%	39%	58%	58%
Northeast (NY, MA, PA, NJ, CT, RI, VT, NH, ME)	18%	19%	26%	13%	23%
Midwest (IL, MI, MO, OH, WI, IA, IN, KS, ND, NE, SD)	4%	6%	5%	5%	10%
South (TX, FL, GA, LA, TN, NC, SC, AL, MS, KY, AR, OK, US VI)	17%	21%	19%	12%	5%
West (CA, WA, AZ, CO, NV, OR, UT, AK, ID, MT, NM, WY)	7%	10%	8%	10%	4%
International	1%	0%	3%	2%	0%

Percentages provided represent total number of student reporting geographic location

¹ Adopts the definition used for J.D. programs reporting statistics to U.S. News and World Report, and includes February, May and October 2020 U.S.-Trained Tax LL.M. Graduates who are employed full-time as of October 2020.

² For 2020, 84% of students hired by accounting firms are at a Big 4 firm (Deloitte, EY, KPMG, PwC).

³ Includes clerkships at the U.S. Tax Court and positions at the IRS Office of Chief Counsel and the Department of Justice (Tax Division), among others.

⁴ Includes students working for corporations, banks, consulting firms, and tax publications, among others.

⁵ Includes faculty and administrative positions as well as graduates pursuing advanced degrees.