Penalty for Late Grade Submission
Several years ago, full-time faculty members voted to impose on themselves a stiff penalty for late submission of grades. For graduating students’ grades, there is a penalty of $100 per day for each day that grades are turned in after the deadline (no grace period). For non-graduating students, there is a three-day grace period following the deadline; the penalty on the fourth day would be $400, and an additional $100 penalty would be imposed for each additional day that the grades are submitted late. Please note that while the monetary penalty does not apply to visiting or adjunct faculty, the grading deadlines are the same for full-time, visiting, and adjunct faculty members. Please be sure to submit your grades by the deadline.

Please use the following instructions to assist you in entering raw scores and final grades using the online grading system.

DUO Enrollment/Installation:
You need to be enrolled in the Georgetown DUO Application and have the app installed on your smartphone in order to log into MyAccess. From MyAccess, you will be routed to the new grading platform where you will enter your grades. Below are instructions for enrolling in DUO and logging into MyAccess using the DUO app.

1.) Enroll in Duo

If you still experience difficulty, please contact the UIS Helpdesk at 202-687-4949 or help@georgetown.edu.
Grade Reporting Process
The online grading system requires faculty to enter and submit raw scores and final grades online. All grades are due by the dates and times listed above.

Through the online grading system, you will:
1. Enter raw exam scores for anonymous exams and receive information about the students’ identity after all raw scores have been submitted.
2. Enter and submit final course grades.
4. Review the grade distribution (curve) for your course.

We ask that you return student exams “with comments only” and/or grading rubrics to the Office of the Registrar. Please organize the exams in exam number order. These exams will be made available to students during the Exam Review periods. Please be aware that the Office of the Registrar does not retain a copy of these exams after they have been returned to students.
Log into MyAccess (http://myaccess.georgetown.edu/)

Click on the MyAccess link in the Faculty section.
You will be asked to sign in with your NetID and password. Please remember to safeguard your password as you would your bank’s PIN number. This password also accesses your employee information, including your payroll and contact information. If you have any trouble logging into MyAccess, please contact the Law Center Helpdesk at lawhelp@georgetown.edu or 202-662-9284.

Enter Raw Exam Scores and Receive Information regarding Students’ Identities

If your course featured a blind-graded exam, you will need to enter your students’ raw exam scores before you can view their identities and finalize their grades.

- To enter raw scores, click on the blue Faculty Services tab at the top of the page, and then click only on the Law Final Grading tab. If you have any other tab for final grades, please do not use it to submit Law Center grades.

- You will be directed to the new grading platform and will be asked to sign in one more time with your NetID and password.
On the welcome page, you will see all the courses that you are teaching in the current term.
Choose a course and click Assign/Edit Grades.

If your course is cross-listed (e.g. has separate sections for JD students and LLM students), there will be one entry for the course and the CRNs for all the cross-listed sections will be displayed. Please enter the raw scores for all the sections.

If your course has an exam section and a paper section (i.e., 3-credit and 2-credit sections of the same course), there will be two separate course numbers or CRNs. Please be sure to check that you see the CRN for each section. You should enter the scores or grades for one section, then come back and enter the scores or grades for the other section. Be advised that these sections, although part of the same course, will be curved separately for having different final assessments and or credit amounts. Note: You do not need to enter raw scores for paper courses. See Grading Instructions for Papers.
Enter raw scores

You will see a list of your students’ anonymous Exam IDs, and a blank to enter each score. You can enter numbers, letters (85, B+), or short phrases (ex: “Q1: 4/5, Q2: 7/10”), up to 15 characters. Note: You may print this page to use as a grading sheet. There is a notes column where you can add any notes that will help you with the grading process; these notes will not be added to the students’ records.

There is no save button on the screen, however, your work is saved as you are entering it on the page. If you need to sign out of the system and return at a later time, your work will be there. Please be aware that once you enter all of the raw scores and click the “Proceed to Final Grading” button, you will not be able to make changes to the raw scores.
Once you are done entering all raw scores and are ready to proceed to the final grade screen, please click on the “Proceed to Final Grading” button. You will be asked to confirm that you wish to do that.

After submitting the raw scores you will be redirected to the welcome page; please click the “Assign/Edit Grades” button to access the final grading phase.

Enter Final Grades

After submitting all the raw scores, the students’ names and their exam numbers will be displayed.

To assign a final grade, choose a letter grade from the letter grade menu for each student.
There is no save button on the screen; however, your work is saved as you are entering it on the page. Once you have entered all final grades, click “Check Conformity” to make sure that your grades are following the current curve.

If your grades meet conformity based on the curve associated with your course, you will receive a message stating that your grades are “In conformity with required grading guidelines”.

You will also see a breakdown of your grade distribution in comparison to the recommended distribution. The mandatory ceiling mean GPA (if applicable), along with the mean GPA for your class, will also be displayed. You may now click “Submit Final Grades”.
If your grades do not follow the approved curve guidelines, you will receive a notice that your grades are “not in conformity with required grading guidelines”. The system will also display the reason why you are not in conformity. To make the necessary grade adjustments, click the “back” button and you will return to the final grading phase. Once you have completed the adjustments and confirmed grade curve conformity, you may click “Submit Final Grades”.

Assign Best Exam/Paper Designation

Faculty members are encouraged to identify the best exam/paper for each course. There is no limit to the number of best exams or papers that can be selected. To make this selection, click on the “Best Exam/Paper” check box located to the right of each paper or exam.
If you would like the best exam to be published on the Law Library’s website as feedback for your students, please check the box located to the right of the best exam/paper check box.

Making Changes to your Final Grades

Prior to the Grades Deadline: You may make changes to your final grades yourself up until you submit your grades to the Office of the Registrar. Once you have submitted your grades, you will not be able to make any changes and your grades will be posted for students to view.

After the Grades Are Posted: If you wish to make a change to a previously submitted grade, based on a demonstrable clerical error, you will not be able to make the change online via the grading platform. In order to request a grade change based on a demonstrable clerical error, you must contact the Office of the Registrar at lawreg@georgetown.edu, and provide details of the error in reporting the grade. Please do not communicate a grade change to the student unless the change has been approved by the Registrar.
Assistance Via Phone and Email

If you need assistance entering your grades, please contact us at 202-662-9220 during business hours or lawreg@georgetown.edu and we will respond as soon as we are able.

Please note that Office of the Registrar staff will not be able to submit grades for you online because we cannot impersonate you in MyAccess. You should not share your MyAccess password with others. Handle your online grading access the same way you would handle access to your personal information.
