Subject: Welcome to Georgetown Law!

Dear Rising 1Es,

Welcome to Georgetown Law! Dean Cornblatt and the Admissions team have been singing your praises all spring, and I am just delighted that you are joining our community this fall.

I am writing to introduce myself as well as to give you a sense of what to expect this summer as you look forward to the start of school. Think of my office and team - the Office of the Dean of Students (known on campus as “ODOS”) - as a portal to the law school. We are a good place to turn to with questions or concerns, large or small, both this summer and beyond. ODOS is home to the Student Life, Residence Life, Sport and Fitness, Disability Services, and Academic Support offices, and our whole team is eager to meet you all on campus during Orientation this August.

Here’s a snapshot of what’s to come:

Orientation Week 2022: August 22-26

ODOS organizes the Orientation Week activities for the entering J.D. class, which will include everything from tours around DC with faculty to casual meals with upperclass mentors to your first law school class. Please note that the mandatory portion of Orientation for J.D. students in the evening program is currently scheduled for the evenings of Tuesday, August 23rd and Wednesday, August 24th. Additionally, during the day and throughout that week, there will be all sorts of voluntary-participation activities that will help you get settled and meet your classmates, from campus tours to meet & greet gatherings, as your schedules permit. We will keep you posted on all of this, as well as how to sign up for any optional programming, in the coming 4-6 weeks.

Peer Advisors

Starting in July, you can expect to receive messages from your Peer Advisor, an upperclass student who is here to be a resource, tour guide, and mentor as you acclimate to DC and Georgetown. They will be available during Orientation and throughout the fall semester to support you and your transition into 1E year.

Looking Ahead to the 1E Experience

There is lots of advice out there about how to approach law school and in particular your first year, so much so that it can sometimes be difficult to sort through it all and apply it to your own experience here at Georgetown. Our team, along with a variety of campus partners, will be with you along the way to give you a sense of what to expect before and throughout the academic year. We will also help prepare you for the decisions you will make in order to create the best possible law school experience for YOU, based on your own personal and professional goals. We will kick off later this summer, through Orientation and beyond. Stay tuned!

For now, enjoy your summer. There will be plenty to learn and read and do throughout the year, so take this time to focus on loved ones and work, and hopefully some summer relaxation. If you have any questions or concerns, reach out to us anytime at lawdeanofstudents@georgetown.edu.

We will be back in your inboxes in a few weeks with updates on Orientation Week programs, Peer Advisors, and much more. Until then, Hoya Saxa and welcome to Georgetown!

Warm wishes,

Mitch Bailin
