Gewirz Student Center Parking Information and Regulations

There are a limited number of spaces available for Gewirz Student Center residents in the Center's underground garage. Students who receive parking in the Gewirz Student Center garage use their Georgetown ID card (GOCard) for access to the garage doors and the elevator serving the parking area.

When you register for parking, you agree to follow the safe driving rules listed below. These rules serve every member of the Law Center community by enforcing courteous driving in our facility.

- *Double parking and parking on ramps are not allowed.
- *All posted signs should be obeyed.
- *Please do not park in Reserved Visitor spaces, Disabled spaces, or No Parking areas.
- *Parking spaces should not be used for other than their intended purpose.
- *Automobile registration information should be kept up to date.
- *Hang tag must be displayed at all times and is non-transferable.

Penalties for violating these driving rules are as follows: $15.00 for all violations.

If you are involved in an accident at Georgetown Law, you must report it to the Department of Public Safety (662-9325). Any accident involving bodily injury or property damage of $100 or more must be reported to the Metropolitan Police.

Charges for any unpaid penalties or for unpaid parking charges may be assessed on your student account.

Georgetown Law assumes no responsibility for the care of, protection of, or damage to any motor vehicle or its contents while on Georgetown Law property.

If you have any questions or would like further information on parking or transportation at the Gewirz Student Center, please contact the Parking Office, McDonough Hall, Room 154 - (202) 662-9331.
