JD Orientation

SECTION 3

Welcome to Georgetown Law

Dear 1Ls,

Welcome to Georgetown Law! We are delighted you are here and cannot wait to meet you over the course of the coming days and weeks as you embark on your first law school semester.

The Office of the Dean of Students and the Office of Student Life have built a JD Orientation full of opportunities to learn more about each other, about Georgetown Law, and about Washington, DC. We hope that you will review this schedule and take advantage of its many offerings.

You'll notice in your schedule that events on Wednesday, August 23 and Thursday, August 24th following are in different colors:

Mandatory sessions are in blue and your attendance is required.

You will also see a series of "Breakout Sessions" in green. Throughout the day on Wednesday and Thursday, we have arranged for a menu of six programs addressing some important topics for new students. These range from how to think about success in law school, to strategic financial aid and planning, to advice from upper-level students. These sessions are optional but encouraged. You'll note that each session is repeated at a variety of times (sort of like a conference schedule) and your section's schedule likely will not permit you to attend them all. All sessions will be recorded and posted on the Orientation Canvas site, so you won't miss material from the sessions you don't attend live.

Finally, there are a number of social, cultural, and wellness activities throughout the Orientation, such as campus tours, a Peer Advisor lunch, and our always highly-anticipated Faculty Moot Court. We hope you'll join us for as many of these as your schedule allows.

Once again, welcome to Georgetown and Hoya Saxa!

Mitch Bailin, Dean of Students
Hannah Ward, Acting Director of Student Life

Breakout Sessions

1L 101: Preparing for Your First Class

Director of Academic Success Lisa Curtis will discuss how to prepare for law school classes and offer some tips for continued academic success throughout the year.

Defining Success in Law School: Your OWN Version

This interactive session offers an opportunity to slow down, recollect, and reflect on your own goals for law school, and your personal version of what success might look like for you. Professor Amy Uelmen will accompany students through a series of exercises to help frame your approach. This session also provides an opportunity to connect with other first-year students outside your section.

Key Information for Financial Aid and Financial Planning

Law school is a big investment, but the Office of Financial Aid is here to make sure you are fully equipped to manage your finances during your time at Georgetown and down the line.

Pathways to Practice: Meet the JD Careers Team

Representatives from the Office of Career Strategy (OCS) and the Office of Public Interest and Community Service (OPICS) — together, the JD Careers Team — will present on the support and services they provide to students, with a focus on 1L year. How do you align your goals, values, and career? Learn about resources that will support you on your career exploration journey - from online education modules, to networking and recruiting events, to individualized job search advising and ongoing professional development.

Practice Law/Practice Well: Lawyers in Balance

Lawyers in Balance (LIB) teaches law students mindfulness practices that will help them successfully navigate law school, defuse stress, and develop as leaders and problem-solvers. Trained facilitators (Law Center staff members) will lead students in a brief mindfulness practice and provide an introduction to the LIB program during this session.

What I Wish I Knew: Peer Advisor Panels

The Peer Advisors will be on hand to give their best advice for 1L, what they wish they knew before starting their first year at Georgetown Law, and to answer your questions about the upcoming year and beyond!
