

GEORGETOWN LAW

2023 JD ORIENTATION

CITY TOURS

Tuesday, August 22, 2023 & Thursday, August 24, 2023

Tuesday, August 22, 2023

Title of Tour: Mall Jog

Faculty and Staff: Jason Wallenhorst, Director of Sport and Fitness

Meeting Room: Hotung Building Patio

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 7:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: Description: Director of Sport and Fitness, Jason Wallenhorst, will lead a jogging tour of the eastern half of the National Mall and adjacent historical/cultural/legal sites. This is a great way to see some of the city, including former locations of the law school and the Walker/Thomas Furniture Company, which many of you will soon come to know in contracts. The tour will be 3-4 miles and the group will run at a slow to moderate pace with frequent stops.

Title of Tour: Anacostia Riverwalk Hike

Faculty and Staff: Professor Lydia Slobodian

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 337

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 9:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: Georgetown Law offers an extensive curriculum in environmental law. Join our environmental law faculty for a hike along the Anacostia Riverwalk. This tour is a great opportunity to meet and talk with environmental faculty while learning what Georgetown has to offer for engagement in environmental law, environmental justice, and climate.

Title of Tour: Capitol Hill Walking Tour

Faculty and Staff: David Mao, Chief Operating Office & Former Deputy Librarian of Congress

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 207

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 9:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: Join the Law Center's Chief Operating Officer David Mao for a walking tour of Capitol Hill. This tour will include stops at the Capitol building, the Library of Congress, and the Supreme Court. Students will have an opportunity to see and hear about the history of some of the most famous buildings in Washington, DC. In addition, students will learn about the work and history of the world's largest library and some of its amazing treasures.

GEORGETOWN LAW

2023 JD ORIENTATION

CITY TOURS

Tuesday, August 22, 2023 & Thursday, August 24, 2023

Title of Tour: Historic Capitol Hill Walking Tour

Faculty and Staff: Professors Peter Byrne and Greg Klass

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 206

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 9:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: Capitol Hill is a remarkably intact and lively row-house neighborhood, largely built in the decades after the Civil War. Its beauty, struggles, and urban success reveal much about the history of Washington, DC and about modern historic preservation laws. Join Prof. Peter Byrne, a long-time resident of the neighborhood and expert in historic preservation law, for an overview of the urban development of Washington, a walking tour through some of Capitol Hill's most interesting streets, and a discussion about the role of law in urban regeneration and neighborhood schools.

*NOTE: The Historic Capitol Hill Walking Tour will include a different path and stop than the Capitol Hill Walking Tours. Please register for only one.

Title of Tour: Rights, Culture, and History: A Celebration of Black DC with Ben's Chili Bowl

Faculty and Staff: Elisa Massimino, Executive Director & Visiting Professor; Michelle Liu, Deputy Director & Adjunct Professor; Elizabeth Tuggle, Program Associate; Ashlynn Kendzior, Clinical Teaching Fellow; Sabrina Lourie, Georgetown Justice Fellow

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 207

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 11:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: On August 22, 2023, Ben's Chili Bowl - one of the oldest and most beloved Black-owned restaurants and a Washington, DC landmark - will turn 65. The anniversary of Ben's founding is not just a birthday to this historic establishment, it is a celebration of DC's Black history, culture, and character and its resilience in the face of struggle. Join the Human Rights Institute for an afternoon of food, music, and culture at Ben's Chili Bowl, followed by a private talk with Ben's Official Historian Bernard Demczuk, Ph.D. about the struggle for freedom and human rights for the black community in Washington, DC.

GEORGETOWN LAW

2023 JD ORIENTATION

CITY TOURS

Tuesday, August 22, 2023 & Thursday, August 24, 2023

Title of Tour: Jewish Historical Sites

Faculty and Staff: Michael Goldman, Jewish Chaplain

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 200

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 22, 2023 at 10:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: With a guide from the Capital Jewish Museum, we will explore its many exhibits on local, national and sometimes international events that involved members of the DC Jewish Community. This will include the museum's current exhibit on "The Notorious RBG" and a visit to the adjacent synagogue, the oldest in the metropolitan area. Not only will we learn about local history, but we will also be introduced to many historic sites in our Georgetown Law neighborhood.

Thursday, August 24, 2023

Title of Tour: Capitol Hill Walking Tour

Faculty and Staff: David Mao, Chief Operating Office & Former Deputy Librarian of Congress

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 208

Date and Time: at 9:00am

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: Join the Law Center's Chief Operating Officer David Mao for a walking tour of Capitol Hill. This tour will include stops at the Capitol building, the Library of Congress, and the Supreme Court. Students will have an opportunity to see and hear about the history of some of the most famous buildings in Washington, DC. In addition, students will learn about the work and history of the world's largest library and some of its amazing treasures.