JD Orientation

SECTION 5

Welcome to Georgetown Law

Dear 1Ls,

You will hear this many times over the next few weeks, but welcome to Georgetown Law! We are delighted you are here and cannot wait to meet you over the course of the coming days and weeks as you embark on your first law school semester.

The Office of the Dean of Students and the Office of Student Life have built a JD Orientation full of opportunities to learn more about each other, about Georgetown Law, and about Washington, DC. We hope that you will review this schedule and take advantage of its many offerings.

As a reminder, you'll notice in your schedule that events starting Wednesday, August 20, are in different colors.

Mandatory sessions are in blue and your attendance is required.

You will also see a series of "Breakout Sessions" in green. Throughout the day on Wednesday and Thursday, we have arranged for a menu of six of these sessions, addressing many critical topics for new students. These range from how to think about success in law school, to strategic financial aid and planning, to advice from upper-level students. These sessions are optional, but strongly encouraged. You'll note that each session is repeated at a variety of times (sort of like a conference schedule). We strongly recommend you plan to attend most, if not all, of the six.

Finally, there are a number of social, cultural, and wellness activities throughout the Orientation, such as fitness classes, a section dinner, and our always highly-anticipated Faculty Moot Court. We hope you'll join us for as many of these as your schedule allows.

Once again, welcome to Georgetown and Hoya Saxa!

Mitch Bailin, Dean of Students
Hannah Ward, Director of Student Life

FRIDAY 8.22

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Introduction to the First-Year Experience, McDonough 203

A faculty member teaching one of your section's Fall courses will teach the first hour of the course, then spend some time talking with you about why your professors teach what they do the way they do in the first year.

1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Private Sector 101 for Section 5, McDonough 206

Brought to you by the Office of Public Interest and Community Service (OPICS), Public Sector 101 will help students to learn the fundamentals of what lawyering can look like in nonprofit, government, and other public interest settings - and how to explore those paths as a law student, whether you are interested in public interest now or further down the line. This session will highlight the importance of using both information and inspiration as a guide in conducting your career exploration and search - providing a combination of nuts and bolts information, insights, and reflections on the process.

2:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.

Public Sector 101 for Section 5, McDonough 206

Join advisors from the Office of Career Strategy (OCS) to learn about the landscape of private sector legal careers, including what private sector lawyers do, how they hire, and the recruiting timeline. You'll learn action steps you can take to increase your knowledge of the market and opportunities within these employers. While there are many jobs available to you in the private sector, the focus of this session is on the structure and recruiting practices of larger law firms.

3:15 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Meet-and-Greet with Practicing Attorneys, Scott K. Ginsburg Sport & Fitness Lobby

Come meet with alums and other practicing attorneys with a wide spectrum of career experiences in this interactive and guided networking event. At this program, you will have a chance to mingle with attorneys who are excited to welcome you into the Georgetown legal community and to shed some more light on their real-life journeys and experiences as lawyers. No suits, no resumes - come as you are!

Breakout Sessions

1L 101: Preparing for Your First Class

Director of Academic Success Lisa Curtis will discuss how to prepare for law school classes and offer some tips for continued academic success throughout the year.

Defining Success in Law School: Your OWN Version

This interactive session offers an opportunity to slow down, recollect, and reflect on your personal goals for law school. Professor Amy Uelmen will offer images and reflective questions to help frame your approach and identify the resources you already have for your own version of success. This session also provides an opportunity to connect with other first-year students outside your section.

Psychologically Balanced: A CAPS Guide to Preventing a 1L Crash Out

Join the Counseling and Psychiatric Services (CAPS) team as we provide you with an orientation to mental health and wellness as a law student. In this breakout session, we will go over common stressors incoming 1L students may experience, particularly in their first semester, along with some strategies and resources to help cope with this transition. CAPS hopes that the information provided in this breakout session will help set students up for a balanced experience that emphasizes caring for the whole person in the midst of a busy law school experience.

Practice Law/Practice Well: Lawyers in Balance

Lawyers in Balance (LIB) teaches law students mindfulness practices that will help them successfully navigate law school, defuse stress, and develop as leaders and problem-solvers. Trained facilitators (Georgetown Law staff members) will lead students in a brief mindfulness practice and provide an introduction to the LIB program during this session.

What I Wish I Knew: Peer Advisor Panels

The Peer Advisors will be on hand to give their best advice for 1L, what they wish they knew before starting their first year at Georgetown Law, and to answer your questions about the upcoming year and beyond!

Beyond the Briefs: Respectful Dialogue as a Core Competency in Legal Practice

Chief Diversity Officer Anjali Bindra Patel and upperclass students will discuss the significance of open-minded dialogue as a professional core competency and how law students can act as bridge builders across cultural, experiential, and ideological differences.

Take a Break!

Need a moment to relax and connect? Take a Break is your chance to step away from the formal sessions and get to know your peers in a laid-back, welcoming space. Join your Peer Advisors for fun icebreaker activities, casual conversation, and a chance to meet fellow new students. Whether you're outgoing or just warming up, this is a great way to build connections and feel at home.
