JD Orientation

SECTION 3

Welcome to Georgetown Law

Dear 1Ls,

You will hear this many times over the next few weeks, but welcome to Georgetown Law! We are delighted you are here and cannot wait to meet you over the course of the coming days and weeks as you embark on your first law school semester.

The Office of the Dean of Students and the Office of Student Life have built a JD Orientation full of opportunities to learn more about each other, about Georgetown Law, and about Washington, DC. We hope that you will review this schedule and take advantage of its many offerings.

As a reminder, you'll notice in your schedule that events starting Wednesday, August 19, are in different colors.

Mandatory sessions are in blue and your attendance is required.

You will also see a series of "Breakout Sessions" in green. Throughout the day on Wednesday and Thursday, we have arranged for a menu of six of these sessions, addressing many critical topics for new students. These range from how to think about success in law school, to strategic financial aid and planning, to advice from upper-level students. These sessions are optional, but strongly encouraged. You'll note that each session is repeated at a variety of times (sort of like a conference schedule). We strongly recommend you plan to attend most, if not all, of the six.

Finally, there are a number of social, cultural, and wellness activities throughout the Orientation, such as fitness classes, a section dinner, and our always highly-anticipated Faculty Moot Court. We hope you'll join us for as many of these as your schedule allows.

Once again, welcome to Georgetown and Hoya Saxa!

Mitch Bailin, Dean of Students
Hannah Ward, Director of Student Life

FRIDAY 8.21

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Introduction to the First-Year Classroom, McDonough 205

A faculty member teaching one of your section's Fall courses will teach the first hour of the course, then spend some time talking with you about why your professors teach what they do the way they do in the first year.

1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Public Sector 101 for Section 3, McDonough 203

Brought to you by the Office of Public Interest and Community Service (OPICS), Public Sector 101 will help students learn the fundamentals of what lawyering can look like in nonprofit, government, and other public interest settings - and how to explore those paths as a law student, whether you are interested in public interest now or further down the line. From discussing nuts and bolts like 1L summer recruiting timelines, to sharing tips on how to stay inspired and grounded amidst the rigors of 1L year, this session will equip new law students with information on what to expect and how to thrive.

2:15 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.

Private Sector 101

Join advisors from the Office of Career Strategy (OCS) to learn about the landscape of private sector legal careers, including what private sector lawyers do, how they hire, and the recruiting timeline. You'll learn action steps you can take to increase your knowledge of the market and opportunities within these employers. While there are many jobs available to you in the private sector, the focus of this session is on the structure and recruiting practices of larger law firms.

Legal Practice Sections 30, 31, and 33- McDonough 203

Breakout Sessions

Beyond the Briefs: Respectful Dialogue as a Core Competency in Legal Practice

Chief Diversity Officer Anjali Bindra Patel and upperclass student leaders will discuss the significance of open-minded dialogue as a professional core competency and how law students can act as bridge builders across cultural, experiential, and ideological differences.

1L 101: Preparing for Your First Class

Director of Academic Success Lisa Curtis will discuss how to prepare for law school classes and offer some tips for continued academic success throughout the year, on topics ranging from case reading and briefing to class participation to organizing your busy Fall schedule.

Balancing the Brain and Body: A Wellness Guide to Prevent a 1L Crash Out

Join the Counseling and Psychiatric Services (CAPS) and Student Health Center (SHC) teams as we take a much-needed pause and provide you with an orientation to emotional and physical wellness as a law student. In this breakout session, CAPS will go over common stressors incoming 1L students may experience, particularly in their first semester, along with some strategies and resources to help thrive through this transition. Our goal is to give you a leg up on having a balanced experience in the midst of the demands and challenges of law school.

Practice Law/Practice Well: Lawyers in Balance

The Lawyers in Balance (LIB) program provides law students the opportunity to explore a variety of mindfulness practices that can help them successfully navigate law school, defuse stress, and develop as leaders and problem-solvers - in a small group setting cultivating a sense of community and connection with other students. During this orientation session, trained facilitators (Georgetown Law staff members) will lead students in a brief sample mindfulness practice and provide an introduction to the LIB program.

Take a Break!

Need a moment to relax and connect? Take a Break is your chance to step away from the formal sessions and get to know your peers in a laid-back, welcoming space. Join your Peer Advisors for fun icebreaker activities, casual conversation, and a chance to meet fellow new students. Whether you're outgoing or just warming up, this is a great way to build connections and feel at home.

What I Wish I Knew: Peer Advisor Panels

The Peer Advisors, a group of upperclass student mentors, will be on hand to give their best advice for 1L, reveal what they wish they knew before starting their first year at Georgetown Law, and answer your questions about the upcoming year and beyond!
