

To: Incoming Students
From: Mitch Bailin, Dean of Students
Subject: Orientation Week Information and Updates

Dear Rising 1Es,

The Office of the Dean of Students (ODOS) and the entire Georgetown Law community are looking forward to your arrival next month! In this letter, you'll find information from the Office of Student Life on what to expect from Orientation, as well as some notes from the Office of Academic Success and the Office of Accessibility Services.

Planning for Orientation Week

The J.D. Orientation program is intended to introduce you to Georgetown Law, your classmates, the faculty, and the legal profession. Orientation Week includes registration and other mandatory sessions for your section, as well as optional social events, well-being activities, campus tours, and faculty presentations. A finalized schedule will be sent to you in early August. For now, Hannah Ward, on behalf of the Office of Student Life, wanted to share some highlights, so that you can start making plans for that week.

Tuesday, August 20, 2024: Optional Events

Faculty Talks

If you are able to join us during the day, a number of faculty will be giving informal talks on a variety of current legal topics on Tuesday, August 20 between 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.. These are optional and you can simply drop-in, with attendance limited only by the number of seats in the room. You will not need to pre-register for faculty talks.

City Tours

In addition to Faculty Talks, we have scheduled a variety of optional city tours and walks of historic and cultural sites, led by faculty and senior staff. Many of these tours and walks won't require any pre-registration, but for a few, space is limited. You will receive instructions in our next email on how to sign up for any tours which require registration. Again, we understand that you may have other commitments, but wanted you to know that these are available, also on Tuesday between 9:00 am - 2:00 pm.

Service Projects:

We've scheduled an opportunity to connect with the Georgetown and DC communities through volunteer service. Join our Office of Public Interest and Community Service (OPICS) at DC Central Kitchen to participate in a volunteer service project that helps combat hunger and poverty. Like City Tours, this opportunity is available on a first-come, first-enrolled basis with advance registration required and we will share registration instructions in our next email.

Tuesday, August 20, 2024 & Wednesday, August 21, 2024: Required Events

Starting at 5:30 pm on Tuesday, your 1E section will be welcomed by Law Center faculty and deans. On Wednesday at 5:30 pm, your section will have your first law school class, which will be a great preview of what to expect in the classroom this year.

Additional Optional Events & Opportunities

Faculty Moot Court: Always the highlight of the Orientation program, seven of our distinguished professors, who collectively have argued and briefed scores of cases before the U.S. Supreme Court, will present a “moot court,” or mock argument of a case that will be heard by the Supreme Court this coming year. The faculty moot will take place on the evening of Thursday, August 22 at Georgetown University’s historic Hilltop campus.

Peer Advisors: Peer Advisors are upper-level JD students who serve as mentors to you throughout this summer, Orientation week, and beyond. We have a wonderful group of upper-level students who are eager to connect with you. You should have already received a Welcome email from your Peer Advisor. If you have not, please let us know by emailing laworientation@georgetown.edu. If you’re interested in getting to know our Peer Advisor team, check out the “Meet Your Peer Advisor” website. They are great sources of information about the law school, the 1E year, and life in Washington, D.C.

The various required and optional activities will appear in the finalized Orientation schedule that we’ll share in early August, with details on time slots and locations.

Other Important Information:

Meals during Orientation: If you have any allergies or dietary restrictions, please fill out this form by August 11 at 5:00 pm EST. If we receive your request by then, we will do our best to accommodate your meal request.

Requesting Disability Accommodations: The Office of Accessibility Services at Georgetown Law works with students and faculty to determine reasonable accommodations in order to remove access barriers for students with disabilities in curricular and co-curricular environments. Students seeking accommodations during Orientation or the academic year are encouraged to email accessibilityservices@georgetown.edu this summer and visit the Office of Accessibility Services website: How to Request Accommodations.

How to Prepare: One of the most frequent questions we receive over the summer is “What should I do to prepare for law school this summer?” Our wonderful Director of Academic Success, Lisa Curtis, offers this: The best tip for you is to enjoy the people, places, and experiences that help you feel centered and whole this summer and throughout law school. By no means do you need or are you expected to do any advance reading or preparation for classes, but if you want to, check out a few of the suggested resources at the end of this message, which Lisa notes as having been helpful to entering 1Ls who want to do a little pre-reading over the summer.

This is a lot of information, we know! We hope that it is useful to you as you prepare for Orientation week and the start of school.

Meanwhile, please don't hesitate to call or email us at lawdeanofstudents@georgetown.edu or 202-662-9292 with any questions or concerns.

Warm wishes,

Mitch Bailin, Associate Vice President and Dean of Students
Hannah Ward, Director of Student Life
Lisa Curtis, Director of Academic Success
Mary Ellen Vigeant, Director of Accessibility Services
Chris Hall, Director of Residence Life and Student Programs

Suggested Resources:

Succeeding in Law School* by Herbert N. Ramo, or 1L of A Ride* by Andrew J. McClurg. Both will provide you with a wide-ranging and easily digestible perspective on the first-year law school experience.

Getting to Maybe* by Richard Michael Fischl and Jeremy Paul. This is a well-regarded resource that maps a tried-and-true approach to thinking and writing in law school - on exams in particular, but for daily class preparation as well.

Atomic Habits* by James Clear. A fairly quick read on how to integrate small healthy habits into your daily routine.