

GEORGETOWN LAW

2024 JD ORIENTATION SERVICE PROJECTS

Tuesday, August 20, 2024

---

Title of Project: Food Preparation at DC Central Kitchen

Staff: Jen Tschirch, Pro Bono Director

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 208

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 20, 2024 at 1:20pm

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: DC Central Kitchen (DCK) is a nonprofit and social enterprise that combats hunger and poverty through job training and job creation. The organization provides hands-on culinary job training for individuals facing high barriers to employment while creating living wage jobs and bringing nutritious, dignified food where it is most needed. Meal prep volunteers will work alongside DCK front-line staff and Culinary Job Training students to cut fresh produce, prepare salads and perform other kitchen related tasks. No cooking or food service experience required! The Klein Center is at 2121 First St., SW (closest Metro stop is Waterfront Station on the Green Line). Attendees will meet at the Law Center and be provided bus transport.

---

Title of Project: Food Pantry Service at the Father McKenna Center

Staff: Jen Tschirch, Pro Bono Director

Meeting Room: McDonough Hall, Room 208

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 20, 2024 at 12:40pm

Pre-registration Required

Tour Description: The Father McKenna Center (FMC) is a nonprofit in the Ignatian Catholic tradition that serves men struggling with homelessness and families facing food insecurity. Volunteers will help in the FMC's food pantry or with cleaning/organizational tasks around the Center. Attendees will meet at the Law Center at 12:40pm and make the short walk together to the FMC, located at 900 North Capitol St., NW.